Special to THE TIMES.

TORONTO, April 8.

Percy Gaston, whose case has been before the Police Court by successive adjournments for about a week, was to-day committed for trial on the charge of having robbed Osgoode Hall last February.

Arrests have been made of some parties thought to have been concerned in the late robberies on the Kingston road.

The annual meeting of the Upper Canada Tract Society was held last night. The report showed that $356,000 had been expended in bibles, books, tracts, or periodicals distributed or sold during the year. Rev. Mr. Punshon eloquently advocated the claims of the society to support.

A prospectus of the Nipissing Railroad, offering stock for sale, was published to-day. It asserts that the Northern line has paid dividends equal to 12½ per cent. on the sum which it would have cost at $15,000 per mile, and as it is expected that the Nipissing road will be built at that rate, and pay as well as the Northern, the inference suggested is that 12½ per cent. may be expected from it.

CABLE NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, April 8.—Specie in the Bank of England has decreased £382,000 since the last report.

In the House of Commons, this afternoon, Hon. Robert Lowe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, submitted the annual budget, in the explanation of which he said the Ministry proposed to deal separately with the general expenditures—those for the Abyssinian war. The estimates by the Hon. G. W. Hunt, his predecessor in office, were £72,000,000, while the receipts were £72,500,000, leaving a deficit of £500,000, which had to be met this year. He (Mr. Lowe) estimated expenditures of the present fiscal year at £68,250,000, showing a reduction of £2,250,000 from the estimated expenditures of last year, which was gained chiefly in the admiralty and war offices. He estimated the revenue of the present fiscal year at £73,000,000, or an excess over last year of £250,000, so if the Abyssinian war were not to be provided for, the surplus would be £4,500,000. The expense of the Abyssinian war was £9,000,000, of which £7,000,000 were expended in India. The country had still £4,000,000 of this amount to pay. The surplus of the present year would just balance the Abyssinian expenditure and the general deficit. Under the circumstances, said the Chancellor of the Exchequer, it is desirable to raise a further sum by taxation. He regarded the present means of collection as expensive and unsatisfactory, and said its only warrant was in its antiquity. He proposed to collect the assessed taxes by means of excise licenses, granted at the commencement of each year, and a return to be furnished by the taxpayer. The income tax is to be collected in the same manner. By these measures £3,250,000 will be brought into the financial year in addition to the amounts heretofore collected. Out of this amount he proposed a reduction of a penny upon the income tax, to repeal the import duty on corn and fire insurance duty, and to re-arrange several smaller items. This will give a decrease of £3,000,000, and will leave nearly £5,000,000 clear surplus.

Hunt, the late Chancellor of the Exchequer, in reply to Mr. Lowe, said the reduction in the estimates was due to the efforts of the late Government in making the army and navy more efficient.

After a long and desultory conversation the usual resolution of leave to bring in the budget was agreed to.

THE NAPOLEONS IN ETYMOLOGY.—M. Louis Ulbach, a very eminent Chroniquer, has appeared in the Correctional Police Court to answer the charge of having insulted the Emperor's person in his publication the Cloche. The following is the paragraph complained of:—"I have just received the prospectus of a 'Dictionnaire etymologique des noms propres d'hommes,' a work approved by his Excellency the Minister of Public Instruction. I look out for the most interesting names, and I come to that of Napoleon. It is derived, we are told from the Greek word nai—which means certainly, and apolen—to ruin, kill, exterminate, destroy; so that Napoleon signifies a veritable exterminator. I thank M. Duruy for having at length authorised the circulation of really instructive books among youth—of books calculated to rectify wrong ideas. The day may come when the science of etymology having filled the world with its adepts, all ill-sounding names will be repudiated, and we can fancy a scion of the house of Napoleon, not on the throne, applying to the keeper of the seals for leave to change a disagreeable name, which is synonymous with executioner." The court held that this etymological disquisition was manifestly an attack upon the Emperor's person, and therefore it mulcted the writer, M. Louis Ulbach, in a fine of £15; the responsible editor of the Cloche in a fine of £4; and the printer in a fine of £1.

—A coolie on a plantation on the North coast of Peru, was denied some request of his, and in revenge he at night took a butcher knife and murdered seven persons—the proprietor, the wife, her aged mother and four defenceless little children. In the morning, when every one of them was found weltering in their blood, the public indignation ran to such a pitch that the Chinaman was taken out into the public square, tied to an iron post and saturated with turpentine. Then in full view of the Chinamen, he was burned up alive at his fiery post.

—Bobcaygeon, one of our Ontario townships, improvised a Vigilance Committee for a wife-beating brute, rode him on a rail, ducked him, and whipped him home, and the verdict was, "Served him right!"

—Twenty years experience in using Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers have proved them to be the most effectual remedy for coughs, and irritation of the throat, caused by cold, or unusual exertion of the vocal organs; public speakers and singers will find them most beneficial. The entire freedom from all deleterious ingredients renders Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers, or Cough and Voice Lozenges, a safe remedy for the most delicate person, and has caused them to be held in high esteem by all who have used them. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25 cts. per box.

EVERYBODY SAYS SO.—That is all who have either used the articles themselves or witnessed its effects when used by others; all such, and they are only fit to judge, are unanimous in the opinion that "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" is superior to anything of the kind heretofore or at present in use for coughs, colds, thick wind, and all diseases which affect the wind of horses. As a condition medicine it has no equal; there is nothing in it which can injure a horse whether sick or well—nor need the horse be kept from working while using it; it is just the article which all who own horses require, and which they should have constantly on hand. Remember it's a name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada.
