Vol 46 No. 30 | Flesherton, Ontario December 22, 1926 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

LADY BANK

We wish you all the same old say,
Wished in the same old-fashioned way—MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Messrs. Alex. Maxwell and Ed. Harbottle captured two fine foxes the past week.

Miss Verna Roberts and friend visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seeley.

The Ladies' Aid held their December meeting at the home of Miss Dobson Wednesday last. Reports of the year's work were read and showed a real success. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. Semple; Vice-Pres., Mrs. Ottewell Sr.; Sec., Mrs. Leslie Poole; Treas., Mrs. Jack Ottewell Jr.; Buying Com., Mesdames Roberts, Walter Wilson, Sewell and Maxwell.

A few degrees of milder weather at time of writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sewell and babe visited on Sunday with Mr. Jas. Patton and family at Flesherton.

The Ladies' Aid of Providence will hold their usual monthly meeting at the home of Mrs John Ottewell Jr. on Wednesday, January 12, 1927.

Mr. Sam Ottewell of Feversham is at present assisting Mr. Alex. Maxwell with some bush work.

Mr. Chester Patton of Dundalk assists Mr. Jos. Sewell with his bush work.

The busy workmen from this neighborhood have made for themselves a good road through the Wild Cat Swamp, coming out on the 8th Line at Mr. Alex. Cameron's corner. They prefer the warm swamp road in place of crossing the Hydro pond.

VANDELEUR

A merry Christmas to all readers of The Advance.

The teacher and pupils of Vandeleur public school had a very successful entertainment and Christmas tree in the school house on Friday evening of last week. A fine program of readings, dialogues, songs, and recitations was given by the pupils, after which Santa Claus, in the person of Mr. Frank Davis, appeared and unloaded the tree. Mr. W. A. Weber acted as chairman. After the program a splendid luncheon was served by the ladies.

The officers and pupils of Vandeleur Sunday school will hold a hot meat pie social and Christmas tree in the church on Tuesday evening, Dec. 28th.

Mrs. Emanuel of Saskatchewan is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo . Wright, who have been under the doctor's care, are improving.

Mrs. Andrew Graham of Daysville, Sask., visited with Mr. Robert Graham and daughter, Minnie, recently.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Wilfred Gallagher was in Toronto attending the U.F.O. convention last week.

An automobile load of seven people became stalled while on their way from Wiarton to Toronto on Monday, and were the guests of Charles Moore until Wednesday, when they got their car fixed.

Margaret Moore returned for the Christmas holidays.

Vera Moore is also home.

The pupils are giving a fine program on Tuesday evening in the schoolhouse.

Merry Christmas to the editor and staff.

ROCK MILLS

Your correspondent wishes The Advance staff and its many readers a very merry Christmas.

A large number of people from this vicinity were in Flesherton on Saturday, and the children seemd to enjoy themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wickens and family, of Kimberley, visited on Saturday with Mrs. Wickens' parents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pedlar.

Mr. Baker, of Proton, took the service here on Sunday evening, and we were delighted to have him with us again. The service next Sabbath evening will be at the home of Mr. Thos. Betts. Come and hear the old time Gospel. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Charles Hanley and children visited recently with Mrs. Walter Akitt.

The logs have commenced to come in to the Durham Furniture Co's yards here.

Mr. Fred Wilkinson, who has been visiting his niece, Mrs. E. Russell, left last week en route for St. Johns, N. B., where he expected to sail on the steamer Montcalm for England.

Mr. John Wilkinson of Duncan visited friends at Rock Mills recently.

PRICEVILLE

Miss Donelda Nichol of Holland Centre spent the week end at her home here.

The Presbyterians held their annual Christmas tree in the McKinnon Hall Friday night, Dec. 17. The hall was packed to the doors and a splendid program was rendered, four schools taking part—Durham Road, Top Cliffe, No. 5 and Priceville school. The program consisted of drills, recitations, dialogues and singing. Special numbers were duets by the Douglas boys and solos by Mr. John Milne. At the close of the program Santa Claus appeared and unloaded the well-filled Christmas tree, which the children all enjoyed. The ladies then provided a splendid lunch and tea, before their drive home in the cold.

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church held their last monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Dan McLean. Quite a number were present and a splendid meeting was held.

Don't forget the annual Christmas Tree in the United Church Thursday, December 23rd.

On December 16th there passed away at her home on the South Line Glenelg, Miss Jane McPhail, sister of Hugh McPhail, after a short illness The funeral took place on Saturday, December 18th to Priceville cemetery. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones.

Social evening was held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday, December 15th. There were quite a number out but the roads were bad and nights were extremely cold. A program, consisting of scripture reading, speaking and singing was held. Mr. A McQuaig Jr. gave an interesting paper on foreign racial distinctions. Contests were put on by members of the Guild and lunch was served at the close.

Kindly remember the concert on December 28th, to be given by Miss Lennox of Toronto in the McKinnon Hall. An announcement is given elsewhere.

MAXWELL

The Maxwell United Sunday school will hold a Christmas tree and concert on December 23rd. Admisison 25 and 15 cents. A good program will be given. Tree open to community.

Miss Margaret Heron has returned home after spending the past few months in Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Cameron of the 10th line spent Sunday with the former's mother here.

Christmas service here on Sunday evening was well attended. Mr. New gave a fine sermon. The choir sang two anthems and the quartette sang one selection. Next Sunday will be a new year service. Come along and bring your friends.

The school concert held here Friday night was a splendid success.

EAST MOUNTAIN

A merry Christmas to the editor and readers of The Advance.

Don't forget the concert and the Christmas tree in the school house on Wednesday evening.

The young people attended the concert and Christmas tree on Tuesday evening at Duncan.

Mr. Thos. Smart spent a few days with friends at Duncan.

Miss Lililan Prentice spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. Smart and family recently.

Mr. Chas. Thompson visited a day last week with friends in the Valley.

A presentation was made to Miss Aleda Feighen on Monday evening. Mr. Carl Humberstone read the address while Miss Alma presented the writing set to Miss Feighen. The evening was spent in games and dancing.

Failed 4 subjects—M. Hawton.

Failed 5 subjects—L. Thompson, R. Thompson.

Failed 6 subjects—M. Kendall.

Ungraded—M. Hatfield.

P. CLEMENTS, Principal.

A couple of weeks ago The Advance published an item about a man being arrested for jumping a board bill at Shelburne. It now appears that we were misinformed and that the stranger actually had jumped his board bill. When arrested he lacked a dollar of having sufficient funds to liquidate the debt, but we understand that the amount he had in his possession was accepted and he was released. The constable did not return him to Flesherton nor did he pay for his supper.

PORTLAW

We wish The Advance staff and all readers a bright and joyous Christmastide. May Santa Claus be generous with his gifts to all and not overlook any stockings, little or big.

A very happy event took place recently when Miss Gladys Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyons became the bride of Mr. Wm. Davison of Wareham. The bride and groom are among our most popular young people and their many friends wish them a happy voyage through life.

Congratulations to Mr. Laurie Pedlar, who was recently united in marriage to Miss Isabel Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Winters of Osprey township. A hearty welcome is extended to the young bride to this community.

Mr. Thos. Fletcher of Galt was here recently in connection with the sale of the estate. The farm was offered for sale by Auctioneer Duncan, but no sale was effected.

Our school concert on Friday evening last proved a fine success and a very enjoyable affair for the pupils and older folks as well. Mr. Thos. Phillips occupied the chair in a capable manner, and introduced a lengthy program, which was all supplied by the children, who acquitted themselves well, showing that their teacher had taken a great deal of pains in their training. Santa Claus came along at the close of the program and distributed gifts from a well-laden tree. A pleasing feature of the evening was th presentation to the teacher by her pupils and others of the section of an an address, expressing appreciation of her personal good qualities, as well as her faithful devotion to her duties as teacher. The address was read by Mrs. L. H. Sheardown and the presentation was made by Miss Vera Phillips. Miss Clinton, in a few gracious words, expressed her thanks for the "wished-for" gift.
