SEPT 2004

— Submitted

Four local people finished the Bruce Trail end-to-end recently. They are Marg Molineux of Big Bay, Harriet Nixon of Red Bay, Doug Fellows of Oliphant and Ina Hopkins of Park Head. They were part of a group of thirteen hikers, all members of the Peninsula Bruce Trail Club and the Sydenham Bruce Trail Club. They started out in Tobermory in the spring of 2002, hiking one weekend a month. It took them twenty four weekends to finish the 865 km trail to Queenston Heights in the Niagara Peninsula.
