CEYLON

Mrs. Cunningham of the West, Mrs. Wardell of Owen Sound spent a couple of days with Mrs. W. White and family.

BORN — On Thursday, February 10, 1927, to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Adams a daughter. Congratulations.

Mrs. Wilfred Snyder and babe, who have been visiting her father, Mr. D. D. McLachlan, for a couple of weeks, has returned to her home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blair and son of Glenelg spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Arrowsmith and family.

Mrs. Ross Leslie of Toronto visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen, the past week.

Miss Vera Marshall, who has been visiting her sister, in Bala for a fortnight, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Beaton and son attended the funeral of Mrs. Beaton's mother, Mrs. David Harrow, at Owen Sound on Monday. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Beaton and members of the Harrow family in the loss of their mother, who was widely known in this district, having resided on their farm, Stone's Line. for many years. Her husband predeceased her four months ago. A family of two sons and five daughters are left, namely: Mrs. W. Beaton, Stone's Line; Misses Ethel and Minnie of Richmond, Va. Hunter, Essex County; Frank, Hodgeville, Sask., and Misses Agnes and Annie at home, who very tenderly cared for their mother in her illness of the past two years. Those who attended the funeral from this part were: Messrs. Geo. Patterson, J. J. Lyness, Chas. Boyce, John McMillan, George Arrowsmith, Thomas Gilchrist, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Thos. Irwin, Mrs. Neil Cameron.

The C.G.I.T. class, which has been newly formed, gave a Valentine social on Monday night. A play entitled "Ancient Spinsters," was given and well received, causing many a merry laugh. The singing by these maidens was particularly charming in the blending of their voices. We hope to hear these young ladies again in the near future. Mr. A. G. Blair gave several selections on the mouth-organ, accompanied by Miss Stewart on the ukulele. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $9.65. At the close a dainty lunch was served of sandwiches and cake.

Mrs. W. Wilcock, who has been visiting her daughters in the city, returned home Thursday.

ROCK MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Long and family from the West visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith and family, and also called on other friends here.

Mr. J. M. Jackson will preach next Sabbath evening, Feb. 20th, on the subject "The Signs of the Times," at the home of Mr. John Porteous at 7.30 p.m. Everybody welcome. Come and hear the old time gospel.

Mrs. Robert Phillips, Toronto, is visiting at present with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoy.

We understand that Mr. Thos. Betts has purchased Mr. Richard Hoy's house and lot and that Mr. Hoy has purchased a residence in Flesherton, and will be moving there in the near future.

Mrs. Allie McLean of Priceville visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Smith, here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stoddart and family, east back line, visited recently with the former's sister, Mrs. Herb Betts.

Miss Lottie Badgerow is assisting in household duties at the home of Mrs. Sam Phillips.

Leila and Bobbie Clark spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark, Flesherton.

BEAVER VALLEY CORNERS.

Mr. S. McAuslin and family have been very ill, but we hope to hear of their quick recovery.

Mr. Leonard Adkins of Heathcote is hauling wood which he bought from Gordon Wilson.

Mrs. James Foster and daughter, Sadie, visited at Mr. James Armstrong's one day last week.

Mr. H. Lewis of this vicinity visited friends at Duncan one day last week.

The Foster boys of this vicinity have been busy cutting a quantity of wood for Mr. J. Brown and the Kaake Brothers.

A number from here attended the dance at Kimberley on Friday last and report a jolly time.

EUGENIA

It looks as if we might witness an early spring this year. We have not much snow in this vicinity this winter, compared with last. A car passed through the village the other day from Meaford en route to Owen Sound.

Miss Stevenson, who has been with Mrs. Alex. Cameron the past couple of weeks, has returned to her home at McIntyre. Miss Delmer Fenwick is assisting Mrs. Cameron at present.

Mrs. David Genoe of East Mountain has returned home from Collingwood hospital, where she has been taking treatment for the past few weeks.

Mr. Harold Lever visited on Sunday at Mr. C. Martin's.

Mr. A. F. Pedlar has been laid up with an attack of neuralgia, but is on the way to recovery again. Mr. C. Martin has been suffering from indigestion the past week.

The teacher and pupils in our school had quite an exchange of valentines on Monday. The children appreciated their valentines, whether purchased ones or home-made.

Mr. Luther Duckett and family of Ceylon visited recently with the former's brother, Mr. J. H. Duckett.

We are informed that Mr. Thomas Betts has purchased Mr. Richard Hoy's residence and property on the Collingwood gravel. We learn that Mr. Hoy has purchased Mr. Neil McKecknie's residence in Flesherton and will move thereto.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late John Boland at Markdale last week.

A few of the farmers in this neighborhood took the opportunity of supplying themselves with some cheap stock feed, a mixture of western oats, barley and wheat, at reduced prices. They hauled it from Proton Station, where it was unloaded off cars.

We are pleased to report Mr. Bert Magee almost well again, after his recent illness.

Mrs. R. Park was confined to her bed a few days last week.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Mrs. Best of Meaford is visiting for a while with her cousin, Mrs. Harry Thompson.

Mr. Ernest Thompson met with a very bad accident by getting his leg broken just below the knee on Friday, while working at Duncan. Drs. McKee and Moore of Thornbury set the fractured limb. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Charles Fawcett spent a few days with her cousin, Mrs. John McNally, at Union Hill.

Miss Dorothy Genoe was the guest of Miss Dorothy Ottewell of Lady Bank last week.

Messrs. Charles Thompson and John Welsh were assisting Mr. C. Fawcett with some brush work last week.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. Ernest Thompson on Thursday evening and was well attended.

VANDELEUR

The funeral of the late Mr. John Boland took place on Monday of last week from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Will Swanton, on the east back line, to the Markdale cemetery. Rev. A. S. Mitchell of Markdale conducted the service at the house and cemetery. Deceased was for many years one of our most prominent and highly respected citizens, and will be much missed in this neighborhood. The sorrowing relatives have the symqathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Mr. George Wright had a successful sale of stock and implements recently. Mr. Wright has leased his farm to Mr. Dick Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon visited friends in Melancthon one day last week.

Mrs. J. H. Holley spent a few days with friends in Markdale.

Miss Ada Blair of Saskatchewan is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Russel Freeman.

IN MEMORIAM

OTTEWELL — In loving memory of Mrs Phillip Ottewell, who died on February 8th, 1927.

We will think of you, dear mother,
When sitting here alone,
The call you know that came to us
And parted us so soon.
—Sadly missed by husband and family.

Derry Day celebration will be held in Collingwood, August 12th.

KIMBERLEY

Mr. Sheldon Myers of Flesherton accompanied by Mrs. Alexander, visited Sunday with his brother, Mr. W. Myers.

Miss Leona Weber is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fay Marshall, at Fairbanks, North York.

Miss Cora Myers spent a few days last week in Toronto.

Messrs. George Cornfield and Rob. Lawrence gave a very successful dance in the hall on Friday evening. About two hundred guests were entertained and all spent a good time.

A sleigh load of young people went to Markdale one evening last week to skate.

The W. I. held a successful euchre party on Wednesday evening. Miss Isla Graham won the ladies' prize and Mr. Norman Burritt the gents', and also for the largest number of lone hands.

The Ladies' Aid are giving an old-fashioned tea meeting on Friday of next week.

Mrs. John Fawcett is visiting her son in Meaford.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Phillip Ottewell and family desire to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of their wife and mother.

FEVERSHAM

On Tuesday, February 8th, the grim reaper again visited our neighborhood and called another of our old neighbors, Mrs. Phillip Ottewell, at the age of 73 years. The funeral took place on Thursday from the home of her son, James, to the Gospel Worker church here, the service being conducted by Rev. A. Mills, Markdale, assisted by the Rev. J. New of Maxwell. Avery large gathering of friends and neighbors assembled to pay their last respects to one who was generally beloved. The floral tributes were lovely, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The remains were laid to rest in the Bethel cemetery on the tenth line.

A great number of people are suffering from colds and influenza.

Little Helen Love has been very ill with pneumonia, but is slowly recovering.

Mrs. H. Alerander was called to Owen Sound last week on account of the illness of her little grandson, Allan Colquette.

Mr. Geo. Julian of Collingwood visited with his daughter, Mrs. Robt. Whiteoak, here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McIntyre of McIntyre visited with Mr. and Mrs. Colquette on Saturday last.

We are glad to see Miss D. Smith able to be out again after a severe attack of bronchitis.

Mr. Ben Short's horse ran away while going home from here on Friday evening. It ran into Garney McKenzie's cutter ahead of him, throwing Garney out and then his horse ran away too. There were damaged cutters, but neither horses nor boys were hurt. Very much a miracle in such a scramble.
