THE BULGARIAN ATROCITIES.

THE TURKISH OFFICIAL REPORT.

The Atrocities Admittedly Horrible.

THE PLEA THAT THEY WERE UNAUTHORIZED

The Leaders to be Punished.

Mid-day Despatches.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The report of the arrest of the Turkish officers implicated in the Bulgarian atrocities is confirmed; 15 of them have been sent under guard to Constantinople.

A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Constantinople says that these are the leaders indicated in the report of Blacque Bris, the Turkish official who had been investigating the atrocities in Bulgaria.

VIENNA, Sept. 13.—A special despatch to the Political Correspondence from Constantinople says that Blacque Bris' report admits that the atrocities were indescribably horrible. It is believed that the report will be suppressed.

The London Post, a thick and thin supporter of the Government, conspicuously invites attention to the arrests as evidence that the Porte is taking effectual measures to show its abhorrence of the cruel and deplorable acts in Bulgaria. It says:—We may feel confident that Lord Derby's and Mr. Elliott's interposition has not been without effect in securing the punishment and relief for the sufferers.

Lord Derby's Speech Gives General Satisfaction.

THE BULGARIAN QUESTION AN ISSUE IN THE BUCKS ELECTION.

Mid-day Despatch.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Earl of Derby's speech in reply to the addresses of two deputations that waited on him on Monday last, on the Eastern question, appears to have been pretty generally satisfactory to the press and public. The agitation about the Government's position on this question is weakening, though it is likely it will be kept alive until after the election in Buckinghamshire, to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons, caused by the elevation of Mr. Disraeli to the Peerage, which takes place on September 21st, and which is hotly contested, mainly on that issue. A Liberal victory there would be regarded as a severe check to ministers.

The most extensive exhibitor of horses of all kinds at the State fair which begins at Hartford to-day is the Rev. Adirondack Murray.

BIRTH.

DICK NSON—On the 10th Sept at St Catharines the wife of Joseph E. Dickinson, Esq. A. M. C. R. Assistant Resident Engineer on the Welland Canal, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

CAMPBELL—STRANG—On the 12th of August at Orton, by the Methodist Episcopal Minister, Hattie Campbell, of Renfrew, to W. Sterling, of Burnstown. No cards.

DIED.

RITCHIE—In this City on the 13th instant, Emily Alberta, infant daughter of Mr. James Ritchie, aged 15 months and 5 days
The funeral will leave her father's residence No 64 Percy street, Ashburnham Hill to-day at 3 p.m., for Hull cemetery.

An Extensive Forgery Compromised.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 13.—A young man doing business here has forged the names of the proper officers to some blank Howard County bonds and borrowed money on them as collaterals, giving one of the bonds to a bank in this city. The forgery is said to have been for upwards of $50,000, but this is not definitely known. The bank here has been made good by the forger himself, and there will be no prosecution.

NEW YORK.

Governor Tilden's Income Returns—His Defence Against the Charge of Perjury.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The Herald says that it is authorised to announce on information deemed entirely authentic, not from Governor Tilden, that the following is the latter's line of defence on the returns of income charges:—In 1861, the period of the alleged false returns, his two brothers Henry and Moses, lately deceased, were in the chemical manufacturing business in Lebanon, but financially embarrassed to such a degree that ruin was inevitable, unless prompt and ample relief came to hand in the crisis. Gov. Tilden advanced at different dates large sums of money amounting to several hundred thousand dollars out of his earnings, all or nearly all of which was lost. This he claims left his income at the figure given in his sworn statement, and this is his defence to the charge of perjury.

Dom Pedro's Daughter.

From the Rio Janeiro Mail.

The 29th of July, birthday of her Imperial Highness the Princess Regent, was celebrated in this city with all honours due to the exalted position of the lawful representative of the sovereign of the nation, as well as to an illustrious lady whose birth entitles her in future to the throne of her forefathers, and whose private and public virtues make her already reign supreme over the hearts of her fellow-citizens. From the early morning all the forts and men of war in our harbour saluted the auspicious day in firing a royal salute of twenty guns; the public departments, foreign legations, consulates, and shipping were decorated with their respective flags. Her Imperial Highness, accompanied by her royal husband, the Count d Eu, held court at 1 p.m., at which a very large number of distinguished gentlemen and ladies, both Brazilian and foreign, attended. In the evening His Excellency the British Envoy, Mr. Buckley Mathews, gave a splendid state dinner in honour of the occasion, at our Hotel d'Europe. This day was also chosen by Her Highness for the distribution, after the reception at court, of the prizes awarded by the International Exhibition of Chili to Brazilian expositors.

The Tragic End of a Runaway Match.

From the Kansas City Times.

On Sunday morning last Katie Craige accompanied George Elliott from Baxter Springs to Columbus, and was married to him, and on Tuesday the bride's father appeared on the scene with; "George Elliott, you have acted like a damned dog!" With that Craige began to shoot at point-blank range. The first shot passed through Elliott's body. He turned and started to run, and ran across the railroad tracks, three in number, and turned southward toward the house where his new made wife was living. As he ran he received two more shots in his body from the pistol of his father-in-law, and staggered and fell with his head upon the iron rail of the side track, just as his young wife came rushing toward him from the house he was seeking to reach. Father and daughter met face to face. The latter reeled and fell insensible as her husband's corpse was being raised from the track and laid upon the platform. The murderer turned and ran to his house, which was close by, and arming himself with a double-barrelled shot gun and two revolvers, started westward across the prairie alone.

The City Marshal of Baxter and his deputy started in pursuit. Craige was wounded in the head by a bullet, but continued to fight and retreat, loading as he fell back. The City Marshal and the sheriff, and a well-armed posse took the case in hand. From the blood on the grass and on the weeds they were led to a small acre lot in the prairie, where, in the high weeds, the murderer was found bleeding to death. But he was prepared to fight to the death, and it was only by a charge made with overpowering force that the desperate man was taken, in a hopeless condition, a bullet having entered his head between the two eyes. Mrs. Craige is an invalid, and this shock will probably kill her. The bride, Katie, passes from one swoon to another, and it is thought her reason is upset. There was no cause for the murder, except a personal antipathy on the part of Craige toward Elliott. The former had forbidden any young man to see his daughter. He was proud and haughty, but a quiet, hard working mechanic.

While crowds were looking at the wild beasts in the London Zoological Gardens the other day the cry was suddenly raised "The lion is loose!" There was a scramble for the gates till the cry changed to "Pickpockets!" The beasts of prey, promptly captured, were a fashionable swell, a lady in deep mourning, and an inoffensive looking cripple.

THE INDIAN WAR.

Parties of Black Hill Miners Butchered.

CUSTER'S RIFLE AND HORSE CAPTURED.

A Messenger from the Indian Camp.

Mid-day Despatches.

A despatch from Fort Pierre via Fort Thompson, Dakota, reports, as confirmed the massacre of a party of five men near the head of the Scio, on their way to Black Hills, and also that rumours are afloat that two parties, one of fifty Black Hillers who came out to open the Fort Pierre route to Missouri River, and one of twenty men who went to the assistance of the former, had been surrounded by the Indians and the smaller party destroyed. The troops having been withdrawn from Fort Pierre, the miners are no longer detained till sufficiently large companies are formed for protection, but proceed to the Hills in small parties and thus fall an easy prey to the savages.

General Custer's Remington rifle and the black horse he used to ride at Lincoln have been captured by some Black Hillers from a young warrior killed on the route to the Hills.

A despatch from Bismarck says: A letter from Standing Rock reports the arrival of an Indian from the hostile camp with a message from seven of the hostile chiefs. He says nothing about Sitting Bull, but claims having been with another much larger party. He reports the Indians ab
