East Grey Fall Fair to Have Mangold Comp.

The directors of East Grey Agricultural Society were royally entertained at the home of the President, Mr. Robert Richardson, on Monday evening of this week. This was a regular meeting of the directors, called for business, although not a great deal of business was done. The first Vice-President, Mr. Findlay, occupied the chair. The matter of a field crop competition was taken up, and after considerable discussion it was decided to take up mangolds this year instead of oats, owing to the difficulty of getting good seed in the latter.

Some rumors had been going around that the Secretary had neglected to pay certain prize monies. A definite statement had been made by an exhibitor to one of the directors that he had not been paid his prize money in 1925. The Secretary produced the cheque sent this man in January of 1926, containing his endorsation, showing payment at Markdale. It is remarkable how a man can make a false statement of this kind. In another case a mistake had been made by the Secretary, owing to two items being for the same amount, and the error was made in checking over the payments.

After adjournment Mrs. Richardson served a really lavish luncheon of sandwiches, cake, pie and tea. Everybody sang with gusto, "For they are jolly good fellows," and all departed for home after enjoying a pleasant evening at the comfortable home of the host and hostess.

Mr. H. Freeman tendered an invitation to the directors to meet at his home for their next meeting early in May.

First Baby Born in April to Get Fine High Chair

The great question of the day is that of the winner of the Baby Special, given annually by Mr. T. W. Findlay, for the first baby born in this locality on and after April 1st. There is only one condition to be observed by the contestants and that is that the winner must be patrons of any business place in Flesherton, not just necessarily Mr. Findlay's furniture store. There is nothing to bar any former winner of this prize to secure it two years in succession. The winner of this special will receive the best high chair in Mr. Findlay's store. Great interest has been shown in this event, which opens one week from this Friday.

McLEOD — McKILLOP

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Knox Church, Winnipeg, on Saturday, March 5th, when Miss Margaret McKillop, Moose Jaw, became the bride of Percy Ray McLeod, Regina, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. McLeod of Ceylon. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Clifford N. Henderson, Moose Jaw, looked lovely in a travelling costume of reseda green and sand, trimmed with fox fur, with a small model hat to match. Her coat opened over a French gown of hand embroidered sand crepe romaine. After a short honeymoon in the East the young couple will return to Regina, where they will reside.

The Lost Came Home After a Long Trip

Several weeks ago Mr. Wes. Armstrong lost his dog, a part bred bull dog. He advertised in a couple of the local papers but no word was received for three weeks and he supposed the animal had seen the last of this fair village. However, on Thursday last he received word from the chief of police at Elora that a dog answering the escription had been found there wandering about. Friday morning the dog returned home in a crate by train and his joy was unbounded when he hove to beside his master. It is a mystery how the purp wandered so far away if he was not taken by somebody. Both master and dog are now happy through the reunion.
