..THE CHINESE QUESTION ..

A propos of the discussion regarding Britain's activity in China, the following appeared in the Toronto Mail and Empire last week:

The American Consulate-General in Shanghai made public a statement, signed by 17 American missionaries, who were residents of Nanking at the time of the outrages there, which expresses sympathy for the genuine Chinese national aims, but says that destructive influences now are determinating the policy of the Cantonese Government.

The missionaries affirm unequivocally that the outrages were committed by armed Nationalist Cantonese soldiers in uniform, who acted with the knowledge and approval of their superior officers.

"These outrages," the statement says, "consisted not only in the looting of foreign homes, consular offices schools, hospitals and places of business, but also in the burning of foreign homes and schools, deliberate murder, in the twice shooting and seriously wounding of a young American woman, in shooting at and attempting rape of American women and other shocking indignities to foreign women too indecent to be made public."

In another part of the statement the missionaries say:

"It is our conviction that the firing of the naval vessels prevented the murder of many foreigners caught in the city." It was immediately after the shelling began by the American and British ships that bugles were sounded and the soldiers ceased the systematic work of destruction, demonstrating that they were under control of higher military officers. These are all incontrovertible facts.

THE LATE MRS. WHEWELL.

One of the most loved and greatly respected residents of the Griffin, Sask., community, in the person of Mrs. L. A. Whewell, passed away at Rochester, Minnesota, on Thursday, March 31st. For some time Mrs. Whewell had been patiently suffering and after a visit to her relatives and friends in Eastern Canada, decided to seek expert medical attention. She started for Rochester March 14 and underwent a serious operation March 24. News of the success of the operation and optimistic letters apparently dictated by the sufferer, reached her home, but a telegram dated March 31st stated that she had suddenly passed away.

The deceased, daughter of the late Charles and Hannah Stafford, and sister of the late John Stafford, B.A., B. D., and Prof. Joseph Stafford, M. A., Ph. D., also Mrs. J. P. Ottewell of Flesherton, and Mrs. Wright of Maxwell, was born in Artemesia Oct. 10, 1877. She married L. A. Whewell in 1908 and went immediately to Griffin, Saskatchewan,. The family moved to Ladner, B.C., in 1919, and six years afterwards returned to Griffin. Thus after two more years of faithful service the one greatly loved passed to her reward.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Whewell was held from the Griffin United Church. In spite of the inclemency of the weather and almost impassable roads the seating capacity of the church proved greatly inadequate. The exceedingly large display of floral tributes, consisting of two Gates Ajar, Pillow, Anchor, and numerous wreaths and sprays, indicated the esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. William Huddleston, B.A., assisted by Rev. William Arnett of Pangman, an old friend of the family, conducted the service. The quartette, "It is well with my soul," greatly impressed the mourners. The pallbearers were Messrs. Townshend, Brossard, Charleton, McDowell, Smith and Irwin. Among those who attended the funeral from afar were the following: Mrs. (Dr.) Ottewell Flesherton, Mrs. Scarrow, Westminster, B.C., Mervyn Wright, Maxwell, Ont.; Geo. Whewell and family, Walter Whewell and family, Mr. Workman and Mrs. Haddow, all of Arcola. Mrs. Whewell leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, L. A. Whewell; two sons, Everett and Johnnie; two daughters, Myrtle and Minerva; two sisters, Mrs. (Dr.) Ottewell, Flesherton; Mrs. Wm. Wright, Maxwell; two brothers, Jas. and Charles Stafford, Flesherton.

The whole community extends its heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family, understanding that the children of a 'teen age need a mother's hand to direct and that little Johnnie, aged 8, will greatly miss his mother's love.

Barley Will Be Field Crop Competitiou

A meeting of the directors of East Grey Agricultural Society was held at the home of Mr. H. Freeman on Friday evening last, when the attendance of both male and female directors was excellent. The President, Mr. R. Richardson, explained the reasons for calling the meeting, namely, to deal with the field crop competition, and with the resignation of the Secretary, Mr. deCudmore, who has held that position for the past couple of years.

It had been found necessary to change the Field Crop competition from mangolds, as decided upon, owing to the fact that they were not listed. After considerable discussion barley O. A. C. No. 21 was chosen in place of mangolds.

With regard to the resignation of Mr. deCudmore as Sec.-Treas. of the society, after discussing the question his resignation was accepted. So far as Mr. deCudmore's secretarial duties we e concerned, he made an ideal Secretary. A number of names were mentioned, but all declined. The President put the names to a vote and T. W. Findlay was made the unanimous choice of the meeting. Mr. Findlay further declined, but after considerable pressure was brought to bear on him, consented to consider the matter for a few days, with the understanding that the directors would also try and look up some suitable person to assume the duties. Before going to press we have learned that no person has been located and Mr. Findlay has finally consented to take over the duties so that the Society will not suffer, and with the understanding and promise of the directors that they will stand by him and help make the East Grey Fair the big success it ought to be. Mr. Findlay is not by any means new at this work, having been Sec.-Treas. of Walters Falls Fair for a number of years prior to his removing from that place, and we hope, now that he has finally consented to assume the duties, that everybody will co-operate with him and let us all boost for East Grey Fall Fair.

DIED

PURVIS—On Saturday, April 23, 1927, after a lingering illness, Emily H., widow of the late William Leslie Purvis, and mother of W. F. Purvis and the late Hilda Purvis, aged 58 years. The funeral took place Thursday, April 26th, from the residence of her son, 118 Bingham Ave., Toronto. Interment in St. John's cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

FISHER—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. James Fisher, who entered into rest April 22, 1926.

One of the best whom God could lend,
A faithful mother to the end;
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore,
'Till God called her home to suffer no no more.

No one knows how much we miss her,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost her;
Life has never been the same.

In our hearts her memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.

--Sadly missed by Husband and Family.
