The Personal Element in Banking Affairs

Between the curtness and coldness of printed blank forms and the human element for whose use they are designed, are vast opportunities for the banker to give valuable personal assistance. The Standard Bank, through the members of its staff, is anxious to use any opportunity that arrises to demonstrate its value in offering personal advice on financial matters. The local manager of the Standard Bank will be glad to give intimatecounsel upon money matters pertaining to your business.

Daniel Sullivan Found Dead on His Osprey Farm

After being missing from his farm on the 10th line of Osprey from Monday, May 2nd, Mr. Daniel Sullivan was found dead in the bush on Sunday morning.

The deceased has been living by himself on his two hunderd acre farm on the 10th line, Osprey, and was unmarried. After having failed to see him for some days neighbors became alarmed and search parties were instituted on Saturday last to search for the missing man. Sunday morning he was found lying beside a log in his bush with his axe beside him. The coroner, Dr. F. T. Bibby, of Flesherton was summoned and on his examination prounounced death to be due from heart failure, there being no trace of foul play or any other cause of death discernible. The deceased had apparently been in good health up to his disappearance. It is supposed that he was intending to chop wood in the bush, when he became weak and sat on the log to rest, death overtaking him suddenly.

The late Mr. Sullivan was seventy-five years of age, was unmarried, and leaves behind him three brothers and two sisters. Mr. James Sullivan of Osprey is a brother. The funeral wsa held on Monday morning and took place to the Roman Catholic cemetery at Creemore.
