

This is a copy of a hand written letter written to the Madam Librarian from Max Rosenthal 429 Craven Rd. of Toronto Ontario.

30-9-64

Dear Madam Librarian:

I am writing a series of articles on the early post offices of various districts in Ontario for BNA Topics, the monthly magazine of the British North America Philatelic Society. From some of these I have excerpted material pertaining to the early post offices of Amabel and Keppel, the two townships Wiarton borders and writing an article which I am sending here for your files, so that people who are interested in the subject can look it up at your library. Perhaps you will want to type it over, to make it more easily readable. I hope it is of some use to you and interested people.

Yours truly Max Rosenthal

The date Oct. 2, 1964A was also written here.

There is a list of post offices and the year they were opened. (It is hard to make out the signature of the librarian at the bottom of the page.
