LIGHTNING KILLS SWINE.

It is early to report thunder storms and damage by lightning, but on Wednesday last a storm of short duration passed over Stouffville to the east, travelling with a terrific wind. Lightning struck the barn of Fred Johnston, on the 9th concession of Pickering, four miles from Stouffville killing six pigs weighing over 100 pounds each, and stunning three more that have not been normal since. The hog pen is beneath one of the barns, and the bolt struck the lightning rod, running down the side of the barn. The hogs were lying against the stone wall on the inner side from which the rod passes down to the earth, and it appeared to have electrified the stonework to do the damage to the swine. The building was none the worse and the pigs were covered by insurance, of which Mr. Johnston will collect two-thirds value of his total loss.

Ball Team Will Organize For the 1927 Season

The baseball season is now at hand and so far there has not been any organizing of ball teams to continue the Centre Grey League for 1927, of the Flesherton team has held the cup for the past two years. Prospects for a first class team are not as bright as they were last year, but nevertheless a very good squad can be turned out to uphold the honor and good name of the champions. The team has lost the services of their star battery of last year Pitcher Kitchen and his battery mate Akins. Cecil Shier McTavish has secured a position with General Motors at Oshawa and will not shine in centre field for the champs this year. However, there has been added to the roster of the club a former player, who will bolster the chances of the locals for another championship pennant, in the person of John Dow, who starred with the team when they came home with the cup in 1925. Frank Betts at third, Lloyd Wauchope at second, Manager A. C. Muir at short and the big boy, Ken Boyd, at first will again perform in the infield. Len Alcox, who won the cup by his timely clouting in the final game last year, will be available for mound duty. Sparks and Thurston are again available for the outfield and there are several prospects to fill the vacancy in centre field. We may look forward to another good year in baseball here.

An organization meeting of the club has been called for Thursday evening of this week at 8 o'clock, when all those interestd in the welfare of the team are requested to attend and lend their support to the boys in their quest for more baseball honors. All players and those wishing to secure a position on the team, are invited to attend. Let all the sports attend this organization meeting.

A drive for new members is to be commenced and the fee for joining is $2.00 for the men and $1.00 for the ladies and those belonging last year will have their payment included in this year's dues. With a little more work the courts will be in good shape and the officers hope to be able to play about June 1st.

TO BE SOLDIERS CAMP AT OWEN SOUND

Announcement was made at Owen Sound by Col. G. D. Fleming of Owen Sound that the 22nd. Infantry Brigade, of which he is commanding Officer and Brigadier, will go under canvas at Camp Sarawak, about two and a half miles north of the city from July 5 to July 14, both days inclusive. It will be the first demonstration camp ever held in Owen Sound and coming, as it does, during the progress of Old Home Week, when thousands of visitors are expected here will be of added importance. The 22nd Infantry Brigade covers an area as far north as the James Bay to the southern boundry of Grey and Simcoe counties in the south. It consists of the Algonquin Rifles from the District of Timiskaming, commanded by Lieut-Col. Malcolm Lang, M.P., taken over from Col. Brodie, O. C., of Sudbury; the Northern Pioneers, from Parry Sound and Muskoka, commanded by Lieut.-Col. Forrest; the Simcoe Foresters, commanded by Lieut.-Col. G. E. McLean of Collingwood, and the Grey Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. T. J. Rutherford, Owen Sound.

Special Sunday Services

The services last Sabbath in the United Church were inspirational. The scholars filled the cente seats and a junior girls choir occupied the choir loft. The service, as prepared for the occasion, was followed by the pastor, Rev. Jos. Harrower, with an address by Rev. W. W. Simpson, a missionary under the direction of the Shantyman's Association. After describing what the association stood for he eulogized the good mother and her influence. Mr. Simpson is a fluent speaker and in the evening he charmed his audience by his enthusiasm and zeal in his chosen work.

Good advertising has two important uses—the creating of new business and the maintaining of old. Many have neglected the latter, to their sorrow. The repeated use of the local papers such as The Advance is a good corrective.
