PROTON STATION

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Roome whose death was reported last week was largely attended. Many of her old neighbors from Wareham were present to pay their last tribute of respect. An impressive service was held in the church, conducted by Rev. Harrower of Flesherton, a former pastor. The floral tributes were beautiful and included: wreath from husband and daughters, offering from Mr. and Mrs. A. Coutie, the Guest family and the McArthur family of Toronto, one from several nieces and nephews, large wreaths from the heads of the T. Eaton Co. and from the parcel post shipping department of the T. Eeaton Co., Moncton, N. B., sprays from the Proton United Church Choir and from the W. M. S. Mrs. Irish of Wareham and Mrs. Edwards of Regina are sisters of the deceased and Fred Roome of Theyburne is a brother. The pall bearers were Messers H. Arnott and J. Menzies of Wareham and Messrs Shearson, Rutherford, McCannel, and Acheson of Proton.

The Proton Station school now boasts an overflowing well. The Board employed Mr. W. T. Rutledge of Shelburne to do the work. He drilled 127 ft., the result being a continual stream coming from a pipe about three feet above the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Ande and babe who were holidaying at Mr. Hugh Hodgins returned to Toronto Tuesday.

Miss Martin of Toronto formerly of Swinton Park was a guest of Mrs. McNalty's recently.

Mrs. Telford and two little children Betty and Florence have returned to their home at Moncton N. B.

Mrs. Elmo Stevens and little daughter Marjorie visited the week end at the home of R. G. Acheson.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Mr. Harry Thompson and sons attended the funeral of the former's father at Erin on Friday last week.

Misses Ema and Alice Rawlings of Duncan visited recently with Mr. H. Thompson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fawcett and children of Epping spent Sunday with Mrs. E. Fawcett.

On Thurs. May 12 there passed away at her home a highly respected citizen in the person of Mrs. Thompson Allen.

Mrs. Allen had been in poor health for several years but her death was rather sudden and a shock to her many friends and neighbors. Mrs. Allen was of a kindly nature which won for her love and respect from all who knew her kind deeds and words shall not soon be forgotten. The funeral service was held at her home on Saturday, 10 a. m. and took place in Orangeville cemetery.

Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing husband and daughters in their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Cameron of Toronto is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Mc Cullough.

Miss Muriel Carruthers of Mcteer is visiting at her parental home here.

VICTORIA CORNERS

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Wm. Ludlow who received word last Monday of the death of her mother Mrs. Thos. Ludlow in the west. Mrs. Ludlow will be remembered by the older settlers as a kind and generous neighbor. It is now some thirty years since they moved west. Mrs. Ludlow, though failing in health, had been up and around till a few days of her death which was quite sudden. Mrs. Wm. Ludlow spent a few days at Listowell visiting her mother's only brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gallagher and children of Toronto visited at Mr. Wilfred Gallagher's.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Hawes of Bright visited with the later's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stinson. Mrs. Stinson returned to Bright with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and Miss Richardson of Laurel visited their daughter, Mrs. Ernie Stinson.

Bill and Ken Hyland of Flesherton visited their cousin Jim Bannon over the week end.

Miss Sherwood taught on Saturday and intend taking the 23rd of May also.

ROCK MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. B. Field visited recently with relatives at Grand Valley.

Mr. J. Wilkinson of Duncan spent a few days at the home of his sister here, Mrs. E. Russell.

Mrs. Ned Croft has been confined to her bed the past week, but we are very pleased to know that she is improving.

Miss Reta Monaghan is with Mrs. Ned Croft, assisting in household duties.

Mrs. Radley spent a few days last week with her daughter, Miss Ettie Radley, at the home of Levi Betts.

Ita Pedlar has been laid up for several days with a sore throat, but we are glad to know she is improving nicely.

Rev. A. J. Preston preached a very impressive sermon last Sabbath in the Baptist church here. It was his last service here as pastor of this field.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the presentation for Rev. and Mrs. Preston at the Baptist parsonage, Flesheron, on Monday evening, when a very happy time was spent together.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gamey and daughter of Toronto visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs Dick Clarke.

HOLDFAST U. F. W. O.

The May meeting of the Holdfast U. F. W. O. club was held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Patterson. Roll call was answered by "A Tested Recipe". An invitation from the Osprey Club to visit them for their June meeting was read and accepted. A "Question" Drawer instead of the usual topic made the meeting interesting and there was splendid discussions. Hurverons readings were given by Mrs. R. Whittaker and Mrs. J. K. McLeod. A large order of garden seeds and bulbs were distributed. After refreshments the meeting closed by singing God save the King.

The Onward baseball nine are working hard to obtain honors in the U.F.Y.P.O. series to be held this summer. Practice will be held in Currie's field every Thursday evening. Everyone who can throw a ball is invited to turn out. The softball team, being a mixed affair, is a different matter, as was indicated last year. However with plenty of practice and support we may make our opponents step to a different tune this year.

After an extended illness Mr. Wm. Williamson passed away at his home on the South Line on Thursday, May 5th. The deceased had been in failing health since an attack of flu in the epidemic of 1918. He was in his 57th year, having spent the earlier part of his life as a miner in the Canadian West, western States, also Northern Ontario. Fourteen years ago he settled on his farm here where he has since resided. He leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing widow and two sons, Matthias, aged 12, and Joseph, aged 10. Two brothers, John and George, reside on the O.D.R. A sister, Mrs. Mary Gilbert lives at Lundia, N.Y. The funeral was largely attended and was held to Evergreen Cemetery, South Line. Those who attended the funeral from a distance were: Mr. Ralph Williamson of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Taylor and family and Mrs. John Bresnahan, all of Hybla, Ont.

BARN STRUCK AND BURNT

The large barn of Mr. William Lowe on the 7th Line South, St. Vincent, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground during a severe electrical storm which broke over the district about 9 o'clock last night. Mr. Lowe had barely time to get his horses out of the barn before it was completely enveloped in flames. The contents included a binder, cutter, two sets of single harness, one set of double harness, 25 bushels of fall wheat, from two to three tons of mixed feed, seven tons of hay and straw, from 75 to 80 hens and a number of tools. The barn had a steel roof and four lightning rods on it. There was an insurance of $4,000 on the barn and $2,000 on the contents.—Mt. Forest Confederate.
