STRIPS HIS BOSS SCOT ACTS QUEER

Couldn't.. Get.. Milk.. From.. Cows and Is Now In County Jail Under Observation

John Hardy is a husky Scotchman and has been in Canada only nine weeks. For some time he has been employed on the farm of Wesley Ferris of Mulmur. On Sunday evening he was engaged in the task of milking the cows, when all at once he turned to Mr. Ferris and said, "I can't get any milk from this cow." "Well replied Mr. Ferris, "try another one." Hardy did so and repeated his former statement. Then he threw his arms around the cow's neck and began talking irrationally.

All at once he turned upon Mr. Ferris with such fury that he almost tore every stich of clothing off his boss' body. He then stripped himself and bounded through the fields like a deer. Later he returned, apologized to his boss and dressed himself. But before night he ran off again. The police authorities were notified and County Constable George Allen captured the eccentric Scott at Lester Bros., farm in Mulmur Township. He was brought to the jail here and is now under observation. It is thought that Hardy went off his dot owing to lonesomeness and strange conditions, he being in the czountry only nine weeks.

Mrs. Thompson Allen

Mrs. Thompson Allen a well known resident of Euphrasia township passed away at her home on May 12th following an illness of about three years' duration. Although in failing health all spring the end came as a shock to her many friends.

The late Mrs. Allen was born in Grey township on March 28th, 1864 the daughter of the late James Allen and Jane Armstrong, early settlers of Mono township. She spent most of her girlhood days in the neighborhood of her birth until her marriage 29 years ago, when she came to Euphrasia. Hers saw a quiet, industrious nature, a kind neighbor and a loving wife and mother, and a lifelong member of the Anglican Church. The late Mrs. Allen is survived by a sorrowing husband, one daughter, (Eva), Mrs. Thos. McCullough at home, one sister, Mrs. Joseph Mc Minn, St. Joes. Is., one brother, W. F. Allen at Allendale.

Rev. Charlton, pastor of Clarksburg Anglican Church conducted the services at the house, which was largely attended. During the service Mrs. Alex. Carruthers and Leslie Mc Mullen and Misses Carruthers sang "Face to Face with Christ my Savior". Following the service the remains were taken to Orangeville by motor, where interment took place in the family plot in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Rev.J. W. McDonald of St. Marks' Anglican Church conducted the burial service.

The pallbearers were Messres Alex Carruthers, Robt McMullen, Charles Fawcett, Wm. Semple, Carrol Humberstone, W. J. Cargoe. The floral tributes included a pillow, the family, spray L. O. L. 1340 Kimberley, pillow, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McMullen, spray, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Semple, spray, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Orr, Orangeville, spray Mr. and Mrs. Alex Carruthers, spray, Home Dept. Mr. Allan was sixty-one years old and had resided on the Blind Lane for many years. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Cecil and Ross, and three daughters, Mrs. Edward Thompsop, all living in the neighborhood, and Misses Mary and Verdella at home.

Mr. Allan was a member of the United Church at Madill. The funeral took place to the Union cemetery, Thornbury, the service being conducted by Rev. Young.

The deceased was highly respected and his death is the cause of great

GETS CHAIRMANSHIP OF IMPORTANT BOARD

Hon. Dr. Jamieson Will Still Serve His Native Province in Important Capacity.

The announcement this week of the appointment of Hon. Dr. Jamieson of Durham to the chairmanship of the Mother's Allowance Board, will be a matter of great satisfaction to the majority of the electorate of South Grey, no matter of what political faith. As chairman of the Ontario Agricultural Enquiry Committee, Dr. Jamieson impressed all members of the board with his business ability and the manner in which he was able to grasp the various arguements. His leadership was appreciated by all the members, no matter what their political leanings.

And so it will be with the Mother's Allowance Board. Dr. Jamieson, as a business man has few equals in Ontario. As a humanitarian and a man who has studied the physiology of life, we doubt if his equal can be found. He knows people. And this is the kind of man who is needed at the head of such a committee. Though he succeeds Rev. Peter Bryce, one of the outstanding men of the province, we predict that from now on the Mother's Allowance Board will function as never before and become even more of a godsend to mothers in need in future than it has been in the past.

The Advance is indebted to Hon. Jas. Malcolm, Minister of Trade and Commerce for a coppy of "Sixty Years of Canadian Progress" a booklet of 170 pages full of facts about Canadian history and industry, and issued in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Confederation of Canada. The volume is for sale at bookstores at the remarkable low price of ten cents and is worth much more.

PATTON — EALES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson on Tuesday, May 24th, when Roy Wilbert Patton was united in holy wedlock to Mildred Irene Eales. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. S. Philbrook, of Toronto, looked very charming in powdered blue georgette with gold lace trimmings, blonde shoes with stockings to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridegroom wore navy blue clothes with a nosegay of lilies of the valley. He was attended by Mr. Howard Ritchie of Durham. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Alfred J. Preston of Norwich.

About forty guests sat down to a sumptuous banquet, which had been prepared with great thoroughness and taste. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and white with ribbons and flowers. The bride cut the first slice of a large wedding cake, after which Rev. Preston fittingly toasted the brie and groom, as also did Mr. Wm. Pedlar.

The bride's going-away dress was of green canton crepe, navy blue coat, amber fox fur, sand hat, shoes and stockings to match. Mr. and Mrs. Patton left for their home in Durham, carrying with them the well-wishes of a host of friends in Flesherton and many other places, as is well shown by the large number of valuable gifts which were showered upon them.

IN MEMORIAM

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. James Armstrong, who died May 28th 1925.

A wonderful mother, companion and aid.
One who was better God never made
A wonderful worker, loyal and true;
One in a million—that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all whom you knew—
A wonderful mother—that, mother, was you.

Sadly missed by daughters:
Jane and Lillian.

IN MEMORIAM

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. James Armstrong, who passed away May 28th 1925.

We often think of the days gone by
When we were all together
A shadow o'er our lives is cast
Our loved one gone forever.
The rolling streams of life pass on
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the smile, the love, the voice
Of one who once sat there.
When a mother breathes her last farewell
That breath means more than tongue can tell
The world seems quite another place
Without the sweet smile of mother's face.
Ever remembered by Husband and Family.

HAS MOUNTAIN NAMED AFTER HIM

Considerable interest was aroused at Woodstock on Tuesday by the announcement in the current issue of the Canadian Gazette that one of the peaks of the Rocky Mountains in British Columbia had been named Mount Pattullo, after a famous son of Woodstock, Hon. T. Duff Pattullo, Minister of Lands in the British Columbia Government. Hon. Mr. Pattullo is a son of the late George Pattullo, who was for 36 years Registrar of Oxford county, and prior to that was the publisher of the Sentinel Review. The family is a distinguished one, the late Andrew Pattulo, former M.P.P., for North Oxford, being an uncle of Hon. T. D. Pattullo.—Coll. Enterprise.
