IN MEMORIAM

ARMSTRONG—In loving memory of my dear sister, Mrs. James Armstrong, who passed away May 28th, 1925.

It is not at the time that the tears are shed
That tell that the heart is torn,
But the passionate tears in the after years
And remembrance silently borne.
—Sadly missed by sister, Maggie.

IN MEMORIAM

TUPLING—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary Tupling, who passed away June 1st 1926.

One year has passed dear mother,
Since God called you away.
Our hearts were crushed with sorrow
We shall never forget that day
How we miss your smiling face
And your sweet and loving ways.
We shall meet you in Heaven on the Resurrection Day.
Sadly missed by daughter,
Gertrude.

IN MEMORIAM

TUPLING — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Mary Tupling, who passed away June 1st, 1926.

There is someone who misses you sadly
And finds the year long, since you went,
There is someone who misses you daily
But tries to be brave and content,
So I shed a tear that is silent
And breathe a sigh of regret
For you were mine, I remember,
Though all the world forget.
Deep down in my heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memory's frame I will keep it
Because she was one of the best,
My lips cannot speak how I loved her,
My heart cannot tell what to say;
God only knows how I miss her
In this world that is lonesome to-day
Her life was earnest, her actions kind
A generous hand and active mind,
Anxious to please, loath to offend,
A loving mother and a faithful friend.
Sadly missed by your daughter,
—PANSY.

On Friday the 13th the stork brought the 13th child to a Windsor home. If the stork had as much brains as it has legs it would have avoided that day.
