Sunday School Convention

The annual Sunday School convention of Artemesia, Markdale and Flesherton Sunday School Association was held in the Eugenia church on Tuesday afternoon and evening of last week, June 17th.

Rev. E. A. Seymour of Toronto, representing the Provincial Religious Education Council, gave excellent and inspiring addresses at both sessions and also conducted a very beneficial round table conference. Mr. Seymour believes that the spiritual, moral and social sides of human nature are entirely interwoven, and the church should make provision for the supervision and development of all these phases in the lives of our young people. Rev. Jos. Harrower also gave a fine address at the evening session. St. John's Sunday School of Flesherton was charted as the best school in the district.

The following officers were elected for 1927-28: Pres., Mr. Jos. McKee; Vice-Pres., Mr. Thos. Nichol; Sec.-Treas., H. I. Graham; Children's Supt., Miss T. Henderson; Boy Supt., Mr. W. J. Messenger; Girl Supt., Mrs. W. Burnside; Adult Supt., Mrs. (Dr.) Murray; Home Dept., Mrs. Thos. Taylor; Teacher Training Supt., Mr. C. F. Lawrence; Missionary Supt., Mrs. Alex. Made Flower Garden

'What the Women's Institute means to a Community," has been amply demonstrated here the past few years by the activity of the local branch. Their work on Memorial Park will be a lasting tribue to the initiativeness of its members which is indeed, appreciated by the citizens of town. Last Thursday afternoon, the ladies of the W. I., under the worthy Preident, Mrs. O. W. Phillips, planted a large flower bed, which they had prepared on Market Square with geraniums and other plants that in a few weeks should be a beautiful bed of bloom. This flower bed has been talked of for some time, but it was the ladies who acted on the idea. The W. I. motto has always been, "For Home and Country," and their attempt of beautifying the home, and making it brighter for its occupancy, is finding a further field in brightening up the town, so that those passing through, will receive the impression of a live community. The W. I. is entitled to the assistance of everyone in their community work.

Please take notice that the Semi-annual District Meeting of Artemesia will be held at Ceylon L.O.L. 883, on Tuesday, June 21st, at 8 o'clock sharp.—G. W. Littlejohns, Dist. Rec. Sec.

The fire call was sent out Wednesday afternoon of last week when it was thought that Mr. H. Wilson's residence was burning. The chemical engine and hand extinguishers were on the job early, but the trouble was only a chimney burning out. Considerable smoke issued from the house at the time.

MADE PRESENTATION

A presentation was made Monday evening by the people and church societies of town to Miss Mildred McCallum, bride-to-be. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. D. McTavish, to which about sixty guests attended. The executive of the Sunday school, Young Ladies' Class and Y.P.S. presented a wicker library table, while the town gave the popular young lady a half dozen each of knives, forks and spoons of the Adam pattern, two silver candle sticks and a tea pot. A real social time was enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Miss Evelyn Carr, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Carr, of Stoughton, Sask., was awarded the "Mary Walker" prize for General Proficiency at the graduating exercises of the Children's Hospital, Winnipeg, held on the first of June. This prize consists of an engraved gold medal and five $5 gold pieces.
