A party of 281 Wentworth County farmers and their wives made a tour through Grey County on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, and were accompanied by Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale, Agriultural Representative, who met the party at Mt. Forest. They arrived in Flesherton shortly after noon on Wednesday and visited the Hydro development at Eugenia, after enjoying dinner with Mine Host Peter Munshaw of the Eugenia House, returning through Flesherton at 5.30 p.m. The party was entertained in Owen Sound at dinner at night and the next morning journeyed to Meaford, Clarksburg, and Thornbury, where they inspected the large orchard of the Georgian Bay Fruit Growers Association. Three huge busses were used to convey the members of the party.

The season may be dry, or
The rain may never stop.
But there's never any failure
Of the dandelion crop.

WILL NOT CELEBRATE

Flesherton L. O. L. had intended holding a demonstration in town on Dominion Day, but were forced to give up the event on account of the Owen Sound celebration that day. The era of the motor car is here and it is now an easy matter for one to travel forty or fifty miles to celebrate whereas a few years ago the limit seemed to be about ten miles. To stage a celebration that would attract the crowds is impossible in a place the size of this and the committee was forced to give up the idea and Dominion Day will be observed in Flesherton in a quiet manner.
