IN 60 YEARS.

Canada's progress since Confederation has been phenomenal. We dshould rejoice that, notwithstanding interruptions by war and other impediments, we have had healthy growth and have on the whole been a prosperous people.

What changes have these 60 years witnessed?

In 1867 we had no railways west of Pembroke on the north and Sarnia on the southwest.

The Intercolonial was unbuilt.

The two great transcontinental lines were then but dreamed of.

We had no electric railways.
No electric lights.
No telegraphs.
No wireless.
No cinemas.
No cable to Canada.
No automobiles.
No flying machines.
No Western provinces.
No rural mail delivery.
No silver, gold or nickel mining in Ontario.
No vote by ballot.
No woman suffrage.

Vast changes, these. What may not happen before the Dominion is a century old?

Fred Graham in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and daughter of Walkerton experienced a very bad motor accident on Sunday of last week when Mr. Graham had his collar bone broken and a severe cut in his left leg. Miss Loreen Graham had her left arm fractured above the elbow, and Mrs. Graham had cuts in both legs. They were side-swiped by a large Willys-Knight car, owned in Guelph by a man named Dunbar, and which appears to have been travelling at terrific speed. Mr. Graham's car, a Chevrolet touring, was terribly smashed up and is not of much use. Mr. Graham is an old Eugenia boy and the many friends of this estimable couple both here and at Eugenia deplore the accident.

THE OLDEST SEWING MACHINE

Recently a well known sewing machine company instituted a search for the oldest sewing machine in Canada or the United States. It was in 1851 that the first practical sewing machine was put on the market, just 76 years ago. Machines upwards of 60 years old were found in large numbers and the agent reports a few of bers. The oldest one discovered had been in use 74 yars an was in the States, but a woman in Cranbrook, B. C., had one that has been doing duty for 73 years and another in New Glasgow, N.S., had served its owners for the same period. Every one of these old machines was taken by the Singer Co. in exchange for one of the finest machines made by that company to-day.

Could Not Walk But Was Restored by Natural Herbs

Elmwood ,Ont., May 13, 1927.
Mr. B. J. Murfin. Dear Sir.,

I must write and let you know how our son, who had Creeping Paralysis, is improving.

He had only taken your medicine about a week when he could walk, and in three weeks had gained 13 lbs.

He helped his father with seeding, and is working every day, and is feeling fine.

Our daughter is also making an improvement, is gaining nicely, but is still taking your medicine.

We certainly cannot praise your medicine too highly for what it has done for us all.

We do not think there is any medicine sold on the market so effective in building up a run-down system as Mr. Murfins Natural Herb Medicine and we highly recomend it to our neighbors andl friends.

Hoping to see you soon, sincerely yours
Mr. and Mr. W. C. Leifso, Elmwood, Ont., R. R. No. 2.

The above is one of the many letters we receive daily from people who have used the Natural Herbs for their complaints, and we are sure that there is a herb for your trouble, which if used, will give the same results as this letter states this boy got, after being carried to Mr Murfin at the hotel in Hanover on January 27, 1927, he got the special herbs for his trouble and used them, and above is the letter from his parents.

If you are troubled with any complaint and wish to get results, call and see Mr. Murfin, the Herbalist of the Canadian Herb Gardens of 110 Dundas St., London, Ont., who will be at the Munshaw Hotel, Flesherton, for one day only, hours 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, July 14th, and he will be glad to tell you what herbs to use for your complaints. There are over 1,000 different herbs used for different diseases and Mr. Murfin, being an expert on herbs, will tell you which to use and he will have a supply with him and no matter what the complaint is or how long standing it is, there is a herb that grows for it that will get you the results like the above letter states this boy got. Remember the date and please come early. Nature's Remedy will be there special for your complaint.
