The Flesherton Advance.

Vol 47 No. 10 | Flesherton, Ontario August 3, 1927 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

PORTLAW

This community was shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Boyce of Collingwood. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. Jeramiah and Mrs. Thompson, and a sister of Mrs. Albert Blackburn on the 4th line. She spent her girlhood in this community, and all sympathize with the bereaved husband, mother and sisters in their affliction.

The sad news came on Sunday to Mrs. T. R. McKenzie of the sudden passing of her cousin, Mrs. S. E. K. Walker of Toronto. The deceased lady with her husband and family visited here about a month ago, and to all appearances was enjoying health and life. Mrs. McKenzie is in the city with the sorrowing family.

We are sorry to hear that the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blackburn is at present very ill.

We are glad to report the Blakey family all on a fair way to complete recovery.

Mr. Thos. Fletcher, Toronto, spent a day in this vicinity last week.

Mr. John Badgerow had a barn raising last week.

Miss May Middleton and friend of Toronto visited with the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shier.

Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Aiken, Mrs. Horne and Mr. T. Walker of Toronto were week end visitors with the former's son, Mr. J. H. Walker, here.

Mr. T. Yates of Berkeley visited with friends here lately.

IN MEMORIAM

THOMSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, Geo. Thomson, who passed away, August 9, 1926.

One year has passed, husband dear,
Since God called you away.
You did not even wait
To say good-bye—just slipped away.

Every day we miss you,
Oft falls the silent tear,
But soon we will meet you, too,
In that Home beyond, dear.
Sadly missed by wife and niece,
Lillian.

People will sit a great deal longer in a cheap seat at a cheap show than they will on a good seat at a good church service.

PROTON STATION

After a month of intense suffering Mrs. I. Stainsby passed away on Sunday afternoon, July 30th, leaving to mourn her loss her husband, a young daughter and two sons, for whom much sympathy is expressed by the people of Proton and vicinity. Mrs. Stainsby's maiden name was Jane Turner and she was born 40 years ago in Toronto. Her parents, five sisters and four brothers survive her. An undertaker came up from Toronto on Sunday night for the body, the family following on the Monday morning train. The funeral will take place on Wednesday at 2 p.m.

Some of our youths spent part of Sunday at the beach (to be sure they should have been at Sunday School) and experienced the thrill of their young lives in an airplane ride. One of the party is reported to have had the courage to loop the loop in his first attempt in the air, and another was too timid to fly, she felt safer on terra firma.

Duncan McNichol and his sister-in-law, Miss Maggie Lyons, are holidaying at Mr. Chas. Lyons'.

"ONWARD" NEWS

Last week's items

Last week's rain soaked a lot of good hay in coils and wind row.

The Onward baseball team were over to Durham last Wednesday evening and played a five inning game with Rocky Saugeen. The game was good and at the end of the 4th the score was four runs even. Onward batted first in the fifth and failed to score and with the darkness were unable to field the hits from the Rockie's bats and the winning run was scored. A return game is expected in the near future.
