Taylor Family Picnic

The Taylor annual re-union was held at St. Vincent Park, Barrie, on Thursday, July 21st.

At 10.30 a.m. cars began to assemble until over sixty relatives had gathered and a most enjoyable time was spent, as friend met friend and old acquaintances were renewed and new ones formed. At 12.30 a sumptuous dinner was served. The tables were set overlooking the beautiful Kempenfeldt Bay, and Vincent Park was certainly an ideal place for a picnic.

The Taylors came originally from the Isle of Wight, just a short distance from Cowle Castle, the summer residence of Queen Victoria, so they often saw her pass their home in her carriage.

The oldest person present was Mrs. Walter Taylor of Markdale, who was 79 years ol age. The youngest was Henrietta Ward, aged 8 months, daughter of Mr. Alex. Ward, Bursay, Sask.

Guests were present from Markdale, Flesherton, Harkaway, Lindsay, Oxbridge, Sonya, Bowmanville, Strongfield, Sas., Bursay, Sask., Forestville and Silver Creek, N.Y., and Toronto.

A remarkable feature about the company was the fact that there were nine school teachers in the crowd. and they were photographed by Mr. W. A. Hawken, Flesherton, who also took a large photograph of the entire company.

The committee of management consisted of Mr. Norman Corneil, Newmarket, W. Rodman, Sonya, N.Y., C. J. Montjoy, Toronto, Miss Lizzie Taylor, Forestville, N.Y., Mrs. J. A. Halbert and Mrs. W. A. Hawken.

Time to depart came all too soon and friends dispersed, sorry to part, but hopeful to meet again next year.

Who was to blame?

The driver never intended to hit this chap. He just forgot for a moment that his brakes weren't so very good.

And of course the pedestrian couldn't know. He had taken chances before and got away with it . . . . but the pitcher went once too often to the well.

An Important Question

The question is, can't we (pedestrian and motorist alike) do something to avoid accidents?

Traffic on streets and highways isn't getting any lighter. Accidents will continue to pile up unless . . . . unless we obey the rules!

Let's be human enough to walk—and drive—safely. Let's give the other chap a chance. If we don't—

—some day we may be "the other chap."

Above all—We are for safety!
