

Reeve Roland Anstett looks on as Harold Donnelly, former Warden and Greenock Township Reeve (1945-1948) cuts the ribbon at the official opening of the Greenock Township Municipal and Works Garage on November 18. There was a large turnout to view the building that replaces the old one that was destroyed by fire earlier this year. Other dignitaries included Bruce MPP Barb Fisher, Bruce County Warden Paul Eagleson and council members from other municipalities.

Walkerton's last council

Walkerton Town Council met for the final time on Monday, December 21. The current council is the last council to meet under the Walkerton name, as the town amalgamates with Brant and Greenock Townships to form the Municipality of Brockton, January 1, 1999. From left: front, Mayor Jim Bolden, Councillors Dave Jacobi, Wilf Lane and Jim Penner; back, Deputy Reeve Don Carroll. Councillors Dave Mullen, Mary Ramsay and Clayton Gutscher. The outgoing council also included the late Robert Mackie, Walkerton's last reeve, who died November 24, 1998.

(Patrick Raftis photo)

The first council for the Municipality of Brockton recently gathered for a picture prior to a special council meeting. Clockwise from lower left: Councillors Roland Anstett, Dave Jacobi, Glenn Tanner, Mayor Dave Thomson, Councillors Jack Riley, Wilf Lane, Deputy Mayor Audrey Webb.