CHEVROLET

In 1920
this Chevrolet 2-door Sedan Cost
$1795.00

In 1927
this Chevrolet 2-door Sedan (Coach) Cost
$750.00

COMPARE the Chevrolet of seven years ago with the Chevrolet of today and realize how radically Chevrolet has revised all conceptions of motor car value.

In 1920, the Chevrolet illustrated here represented the highest standards of quality and value . . . at a price of $1795 (f.o.b. Oshawa) . . . over a thousand dollars more than you pay today for a Chevrolet that possesses style, luxury and refinement unthought-of in any car a few years ago.

In following its fundamental policy of constant improvement, Chevrolet has built up a production volume which places it first among all cars in the world. And Chevrolet has shared the savings of volume purchasing and production, with the public by reducing the prices of Chevrolet cars.

So, today, you get a Chevrolet with amazing QUALITY in its every detail at a fraction of the cost of a similar model Chevrolet of seven years ago. C-228C

The Late Mrs. F. Boyce

Mrs. Fred Boyce of Collingwood, formerly a resident of Artemesia townsip, where she was born 44 years ago, died after an illness of only a few hours, at the G and M. hospital, Collingwood, on Friday, July 29th. Mrs. Boyce was the daughter of the late Jeremiah and Mrs. Thompson. Twenty-five years ago the family moved to Collingwood, where the deceased was married to Mr. Boyce and has since made her home there.

Mrs. Boyce had not been in robust health for a long time, but she became seriously ill only on Thursday, when she was taken to the hospital, where she passed away the following day. She is survived by her husband, two young children, Edna, nine years of age, and Harold, aged two years, and also by her mother, Mrs. J. Thompson, and three sisters, Mrs. Albert Blackburn, Flesherton, Mrs. Leonard Fryer, Port Colborne, and Mrs. C. E. Cansfield, Toronto.

In Mrs. Boyce's passing the husband has lost a loving wife, the children a devoted mother, the mother and sisters an affectionate daughter and sister, and the community a loyal and thoughtful neighbor. She will be greatly missed also in the Baptist church of which she was a loyal and active member, and in which her husband is a Deacon.

The funeral service was conducted at her late residence on Birch St., Collingwood, on Monday afternoon, by Professor C. T. Holman of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, who is supplying the pulpit of the Baptist church for the summer. Professor Holman based his address on the 14th chapter of John's gospel, which he read for the scripture lesson, and pointed out how, in the words found in this chapter, the Master sought to comfort His own disciples who were about to suffer their most tragic bereavement in His own death. Mrs. W. Edwards sang "In the Land of Fadeless Day" very sympathetically, and was accompanied by Mrs. D. Manson. The floral tributes, of which there were a great number, were carried both from the home and at the grave by a group of girls from the Baptist church. Interment was made at the Baptist cemetery.

THE LATE MRS. M. TAYLOR

The death occurred of a very highly respected resident of Owen Sound in the person of Maria Fuller, widow of the late Thos. H. Taylor, 1358- 4th Ave. E. at eight o'clock on July 16th, following a painful illness for a little more than seven weeks, the result of a fall in her own home in which she sustained a fractured hip, at the advanced age of 83 years. Her injury shocked her system to such an extent that she failed to recover. Deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fuller, Bolton Ont., where she was born and spent her early life, and where she was married to Thomas H. Taylor, who predeceased her some ten years ago. Soon after their marriage they moved to Artemesia township, to a place called Mount Zion, where they resided for many years after taking up residence at Markdale, where they lived for eight years, coming to Owen Sound 16 years ago, where she has since made her home. She was the possessor of a genuine Christian character, a loving and devoted mother, and greatly beloved by all because of her kindly disposition and thoughtfulness for oters. She was a devoted member of the Central United Church.

She was the hother of 8 children six of whom survive: Wm. and Wesley of the West; Thomas of California; Mrs. William Duckett of Eugenia; Miss Susie Taylor at home; Mrs. Geo. Palmer of Vancouver also one sister, Mrs. Wm. Scott of Toronto and one brother, Wm. Fuller of Bolton. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon. Service at the house at 2.30 o'clock and was conducted by the Rev. C. E. Kenny of the Central United Church. Interment took place to Greenwood cemetery.

The floral tributes were beautiful. Wreath from daughter Susie, Spray from her niece, Mae Duckett, spray Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snell, spray from Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mitchell, spray Mrs. James Scott and daughter Margaret, spray, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor, spray, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. F. Bearman, spray, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dankerk, spray, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Danard, spray, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Little and daughter, Elizabeth.

Friends who attended the funeral from a distance were- Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Reid, Mrs. T. Douser and Mrs. Wm. Scott all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. I. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. F. Taylor of Mount Zion; Mr. Frank Taylor of Eugenia; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duckett and daughter Mae of Eugenia; Mr. Levi Duckett of Maxwell; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Snell and Mrs. Murdock of Markdale.
