

A SHOW STOPPER—Ten horses walking in a circle powered a threshing machine at the IPM's antique display last week. The five-team hitch and handlers threshed a load of barley for onlookers through the five-day match. (Wassink photo)

GET ALONG LITTLE DOGGIE—The sheep dog trials were a popular attraction at the International Plowing Match held in Brant Township last week. The dogs used are usually border collies. The rules of the trials required them to herd a group of five sheep through two sets of gates and then into a pen. (Ellis photo)
