This community was shocked on Tuesday afternoon of last week when the word spread about that Mr. Geo. Hutchinson, a well known resident of this community, had been suddenly called to the Great Beyond. Mr. Hutchinson had not been in the best of health for some time but was going about as usual and on Tuesday morning had gone up to the home of his brother, Lance, and was standing on the verandah when, without a moments warning, suddenly collapsed. Death was due to heart failure. Deceased was the eldest son of the late Mr.and Mrs. George Hutchinson and spent his entire life in this community. He is survived by two sons and two daughters namely, Will of Toronto and Ran at home, Mrs. Martin of Proton and Mrs. Dunn Lee of Riverdale. There are also four brothers and three sisters. The funeral was held on Thursday to the Markdale Cemetery, the service being held in Christ Church, conducted by Rev. A. S. Mitchell. The sympathy of the community is extended toall the relatives in their bereavement.

GOOD SILVERWARE IS NOT A LUXURY

IN THESE DAYS a table service of good silverware is by no means an extravagance.

Rather it is a necessity, which modern standards of living and good housekeeping demand—and comparatively inexpensive.

To fully appreciate this you have but to come and see our complete displays of world-famous

COMMUNITY PLATE

The Tableware of Distinction

Four beautiful designs from which to choose—the Hampton Court, Greenner, Bird of Paradise and Adam.

Tea Spoons are $4.25 the set; other charming pieces from $1 up.

Come in and see them—if only to admire and compare.

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO

THE University belongs to the people of Western Ontario. It seeks to serve the whole community.

In 1926-27 nine hundred and nineteen regular students were enrolled. One hundred and fifty nurses in training received professional and technical instruction. There were one hundred and sixty adults taking systematic work in the Extension Department.

As the gross income of the University is small—too small for its most pressing needs—all freshmen classes will be limited in numbers. Only students having the highest qualifications will be accepted. Application should be made as early as possible.

Registration Day—23rd September, 1927.

For further information, apply to:
