EDITORIAL NOTES

Premier Ferguson, having definitely announced that under no consideration will he be a candidate for the Conservative leadership at the forthcoming convention, Thomas Church, M.P., may now cast his hat in the ring.

The garter has a place in the sun all along the line.

* * *

Simcoe County assizes this fall will be one of the most important held for many years. It is expectetd that the cattle stealing and store robbing cases will orcupy most of the time allotted.

* * *

The influx of motor visitors into Grey County this year is truly marvellous. One day recently there were motors on Flesherton streets from Idaho, Nebraska, Iowa and Saskatchewan, and more have followed from far distant points, good roads are abolishing distance, cementing family affiliations and promoting international friendships.

* * *

It is intimated that three generals are candidates for the Presidency of Mexico. No doubt the on who polls the Colonel vote will win.

* * *

A poet laureate in West Virginia State is to have $900 a year as salary. For this low pay the public will doubtless be spared an undue production of verse—short metre, as it were.

* * *

It has recently been proved that man cannot control the elements, unless the elements agree.

* * *

There is more motor traffic in Sweden than in Germany. The Danes, however, take more kindly to the motor than their neighbors. But compared with this continent, visitors find scorching in its infancy in Europe.

* * *

Blinding car light still claim the right-of-way on the highways. The cure for the evil may only come when the Province authorities assume the supply of headlights as they have done the numbers. They may jump at this excuse to obtain another tax from the travelling public.

* * *

Premier Ferguson announced recently that there would likely be another cut in the car license fee in 1928. This is welcome news. Will 1929 see the abolition of the charge for a license for pleasure cars?

* * *

There should be no running over 25 miles an hour on narrow roads.

* * *

The last act of Premier Baldwin of Great Britain, before he left Canada, was to replenish his tobacco pouch. "One touch of nature," etc., and good Canadian tobacco.

* * *

Without apparently knowing what it is all about, the Chinese armies have resumed fighting.

If you don't tell 'em, you can't sell 'em." That was the advice to the National Retail Grocers' Association last week by Fred W. Anderson, whose merchandise store at Cozard, Nebraska, a town of 1,200, does an annual business of $300,000. "Every groceryman should spend at least two per cent. of his gross receipts during 1927 for advertising," he said. Mr. Anderson said that the success of his business depended entirely upon carefully planned advertising.

IN MEMORIAM

GAMEY — In loving memory of our brother, Joe, who passed away on August 31st, 1926.

The years may wipe out many things
But this they'll wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
—Millie and Aggie.

IN MEMORIAM

GAMEY — In loving memory of my dear husband, Joseph W. Gamey, who passed away August 31, 1926.

It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country, The Beyond,
And yet not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond
As journeying friends bring distant regions near
And as for me there is no sting in death
And so the grave has lost its victory
It is but crossing with abated breath
And white set face, a little strip of sea
To find the loved ones waiting on the shore
More beautiful—more precious—than before.
—Wife and Family.

The Proton Station baseball fans are eagerly anticipating the next league game. The report is the excitement is so intese when a home run is made the runner's wife rushes on the diamond and embraces her husband. The young men had better be careful not to allow the fans too much liberty.

Letters To The Editor

Beamsville, Aug. 22.
W. H. Thurston, Editor.

Dear Sir,—Allow me to add my congratulations to you for your long term in conducting The Advance. Like many of your readers I like to get the letter from the old ground once a week. I was also pleased to note your election to the major position of the town. I might say we have a 10-acre fruit farm at this point and are making it a summer home, and I think that I can show some of the tenants how to farm yet. Strawberries were a light crop; raspberries good; cherries light; peaches fair; pears good; apples good; plums a failure; tomatoes are not doing any good as they are not producing nor ripening. People here say that the weather this year has very extreme changes, some times very cold.

Sincerely yours, W. BUSKIN.

W. H. Thurston, Editor.

My Dear Sir,—Some good Samaritan recently mailed me a copy of the dear old "Advance" (Jubilee Number) thereby starting something, for the remainder of that night was spent in a diligent perusal of the same, and incidentally was reborn a desire to hear from some of the kids of my boyhood days.

Thirty-eight years is a long time to look back, but remembrance of the names of friends of those days is as clear as ever. I was delighted to see scattered here and there through the paper such naes as Charlie and Albert Stewart, Tom Clayton, Bill Bellamy, Dan McTavish and many others, with most of whom I fought, played, swam in the old mill pond and played hookey from school.

There is much that I would like to write, but the fact that quite recently I suffered the loss of my dear wife (on Saturday the sixth of this month) and am still in a daze, finding it difficult to concentrate, but it occurred to me that some of those whose names are mentioned above, and others whose friendship is equally precious to me, might like to write me. If so I would be delighted to hear from them.

My father's name appears on the second to the last page as the founder of the Flesherton Woollen Mills, and others whose Christian infuence has reached across the year, and is still an inspiration to me.

Yours very sincerely,
W. B. CAMPBELL,

CURE FOR T. B. COWS

Five months ago ten cows which had shown every sign of advanced tuberculosis, and which had been condemned by the United States Herd Inspectors, were selected for a test of supposed tuberculosis cure evolved by Dr. George, Portland, Oregon, Veterinary. Recently three of the ten cows were slaughtered, and subjected to searching examination for traces of the disease. At the end of the examination the carcases of all three were passed on by Dr. A. J. Dinse, United States Inspector, as free from tuberculosis and fit for human sustenance. This was the outstanding development of the scientific clinic, as a climax to the official tests conducted by the city health bureau and other research agencies.

Be sure to see the slowest horseback race at the Fair. Riders all change and of course will try and make the other fellow's horse go faster than their's, so that your's will be the slowest horse.

Daredevil Drivers Do Damage!

PROBABLY a few hundred dollars will cover the cost of this accident, but think how serious it might have been!

Think how much of the pleasure we have every right to expect from motoring is being stolen from us by daredevil drivers!

You find these chaps everywhere . . especially when there has just been an accident . . they are always taking chances.

These reckless fellows do not mean to be the menace that they are; it is only that they are bubbling over with energy, impatient of delay and eager to "get somewhere" . . usually for no reason at all.

One thing we can all do and that is to be very careful not to merit the title "daredevil" ourselves.

As a means to this end, surely we are all agreed that for one thing—

Careless "Cutting In" Should Be Cut Out. 33
