Miss Leila Jackson of Proton visited recently with Miss Mable Betts.

Mr. Geo. Beecroft visited recently at the home of Mr. Levi Betts.

Fashion paradox: the less dress the best dressed.

Dieting is so popular that scores of doctors have had to economize by putting last year's magazines in their waiting rooms.

The man who yearns to get back to the old swimming hole for a vacation is usually glad to return to a nice clean white enamelled bathtub with plenty of hot and cold water.

THE SALVATION ARMY

On Tuesday evening of last week the Ladies' Aid gave an ice cream social at the church, which was well patronized. Mr. Prosser occupied the chair in his usual happy manner, giving the opening address and also later in the program, a recitation. Miss Kate McMillan gave a lengthy and quite humorous reading which kept the audience smiling. Miss Jeanette McLeod recited. Miss Stewart gave a couple of solos, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo Cairns and Mrs. A. McDonald gave a couple of trios, which were enjoyed. Mr. Alex. Knox gave a uke selection which had to be responded to with an encore. The program then being finished the ladies served cake and ice cream. Mr. Arrowsmith, who had charge of the door announced the proceeds being nearly $20. The ladies are very grateful to all who assisted to make the evening a success.

Sunday, September 25 being Rally Day, the sunday school will join the sabbath school in the school exercises which will commence at 11 o'clock. Special music will be given. It is hoped that all the parents and friends will attend.

PRICEVILLE

Threshing is the order of the day around here.

Messrs. Clifford Hincks and Murray Nichol leave to-day for Toronto, where they will attend Normal.

Miss Ila MacCannell of Proton Station is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Hincks.

A number of our youth and beauty attended the party at the home of Mr. John Nicol Sr. on Wednesday night, and all report a splendid time.

The play given at Dromore on Friday night by the Priceville people was a success, the proceeds amounting to nearly $19.00.

Miss Alma Tooper was the guest of her friend, Miss Margaret Nichol, on Sunday.

Miss Esther McLean of Melancthon spent the week end at her home.

Miss Ada MacLean of Toronto visited recently at Mr. Dan Campbell's.

Everybody around here are planning to take in Flesherton fair on Friday. We hope the Weather Man favors them with a good day.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON — In loving memory of my dear father, John Kernaghan Jamieson, who passed away, September 19th, 1926.

The month of September again is here
For me, the saddest of all the year;
A day of remembrance, so sad to recall
But deep in our hearts he was loved by all.

—Daughter, Eva.

Any information regarding matters pertaining to Fall Fair will be cheerfully given by Sec. T. W. Findlay. Phone in both house and shop.

EUGENIA

SEPTEMBER

And over all rests a golden splendour
That hints of glories, we cannot see;
That thrills the heart with a promise tender,
Of coming gladness in days to be.

The Late W. J. Saigeon

Mr. William John Saigeon, an old resident of Collingwood and of the Feversham district passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Marshall McMaster in Toronto, on Tuesday morning, September 6th, 1927. He had been ailing the past few years with anemia, then dropsy set in, which in the end proved fatal. He was born in King township 77 years ago and when quite a small lad he came with his parents and resided in Osprey township, near the village of Maxwell and Feversham. His wife (whose maiden name was Miss Rebecca Hawkens) predeceased him four years ago. The remains were brought to Collingwood on the noon train, Thursday, Sept. 8th to Trott's undertaking parlor, where the funeral took place to the Trinity United Church cemetery, where the remains of his beloved wife lie. The funeral service was held in Toronto. At the grave the pastor of the Trinity United church, Collingwood, officiated The pall bearers were Messrs. Sam and Will Hawkins, Donald McDonald, Fred Pedlar, Mr. Hindle and Mr. Wagnes. The flowers were many and beautiful showing the respect of the deceased.

Those left to mourn the loss of a loving father are: Eva (Mrs. McArthur, Ravenna, Ont.) Jennie (Mrs. M. McMaster, Toronto, Ont., May (Mrs. A. Faulkner, Toronto) and Annie also of Toronto. One son, Robert, and one son, adopted, Philip, of Toronto.

We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing friends and relatives in their sad bereavement.
