DIAMOND WEDDING

RESPECTED OSPREY PIONEERS CELEBRATED THE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR MARRIAGE

The Stayner Sun contains a lengthy account of the celebration of the Sixtieth anniversary of their wedding by Mr. and Mrs. William Seeley, fourth concession of Nottawasaga, who will be remembered by early settlers in Osprey as residents of that township. On Saturday, 24th ult., this much-respected couple were surrounded by six of their living sons, with their wives and families, of whom there were 23 grandchildren, four great grandchildren, as well as a number of intimate friends. James and Wilson, two sons, are residents in the West and were unable to be present. Mr. Seeley is of good Irish stock, having been born in County Armagh, from which so many of our sturdy pioneers come; he is in his 85th year. Mrs. Seeley is a Canadian. born in Albion township 76 years ago. Mr. Seeley was in his early teens when his parents, who emigrated to Brampton, Ont., brought him to Osprey, where the family settled. There Mr. Seeley wooed and won Miss Martha Hayes, the belle of the district, and there the happy couple spent the first half of their wedded life. Thirty-one years ago they moved to their present home, where they have continued their life of happiness and contentment, and bid fair to have years yet of wedded bliss.

Among the sixty guests at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson and son, Earl, of Ravenna, and Mr. Ernest Hayes, nephew of the bride, and his wife of Maxwell.

A complimentary address was read by the youngest son, William, and the groom of 60 years was presented with a diamond pin from the sons residing in the West, and a gold headed ebony cane from the other members of the family while a diamond brooch and diamond ring were given to the bride.

Mr. Seeley is an enthusiastic Orangeman of 69 years' standing and in that time he has only missed one Twelfth of July celebration. The couple are members of the Anglican church, and Mr. Seeley is a staunch Conservative. They were toasted by the assembly, response being made by Mr. Seeley in a characteristically happy speech.

Guelph's centennial old home week failed to pay its way by $986. The city council footed the bill by a vote of 13 to 1. The total receipts for the week were $17,450.

ARTEMESIA COUNCIL
