Killed in Motor Accident At Dunkirk, N. Y.

Mrs. A. Harrison, South of town received a telegram on Sunday that her sister, Mrs. Ward Harrison, of Sheridan, N. Y. was killed in a motor accident on Sunday night at 7.00 p.m. Mrs. Harrison left on Monday morning to attend the funeral on Tuesday.

In a letter received Tuesday from Mr. W. W. Smith of Dunkirk, N.Y., he states that Mrs. Harrison was struck by an auto driven by Mr. Chas. Ludeman of Silver Creek, as she was crossing the main road on her way to church. She was placed in Ludeman's auto and rushed to a hospital but died enroute. The highway in question is one of the most heavily travelled highways in America.

The late Mrs. Harrison was 74 years of age and is survived by one son, Alfred, living at Sheridan. The other immediate relatives are: Mrs. John Bentham, living with Mr. Smith, Mrs. Alf. Harrison of Flesherton and Mr. Alex. Stewart of Owen Sound.

A coroner's inquest is to take place as to the cause of the accident. It is stated that Ludeman was travelling about fifty miles an hour at the time, but he admits only of a speed of between 35 and 40 miles.

The late Mrs. Harrison has been a subscriber of The Advance for a great many years, keeping in touch with old friends through these columns, and the many friends here of the deceased, and the remaining relatives, are indeed very sorry to hear of the tragedy.

Letter To The Editor

Vancouver, B.C.

Editor of the Advance:—

I thought maybe you or some of your readers might be interested in our trip to the North of Ontario and British Columbia.

It is putting it mildly to say we enjoyed the trip all the way and met some very nice and interesting peaple. Our stay at Kenora was of interest, visiting Nellie Burritt in her new home and becoming acquainted with the hospitable people she is making her home among; also the wonderful five roses flour mill with their 12,000 lbs. a day capacity. The kindness of Mr. Cornish and Mr. Davis, the managers, taking us all over the plantt and explaining the whole process and grades of the flour and all their very extensive out put made us want to use their flour when we saw how clean and wholesome everything was. We saw them load a car in ten minutes which is their usual speed.

We also visited the paper and saw mills. The saw mills are turning out iumense piles of lumber. The one we visited had a capacity of 100,000 ft. per day. One of the men met us and took us in to all the different departments; showing us how every bit of the lumber is made use of in some way. The paper mills are, I think, the largest of their kind in the world, and are turning out a large amount of finished product. The most outstanding feature of all was the thoughtfulness and courtesy of the men in charge, and their willingness to be nice to strangers.

The trip through the mountains beggars description. Looking up at their snow-capped heights makes one stop and say what a wonderful Almighty, to make and keep in place such mighty rocks and wonderful streams. Those who have been privileged to stand at the mighty divide and drink of the mountain waters that flow down and are half going to the Atlantic and the other half finding its way to the Pacific ocean. will understand the strange feling it gave us. We were interested in Banff with its wonderful hot springs, where there are so many tourists and people with divers diseases seeking health from these famous springs.

On reaching Vancouver we were met by friends who were kind, and in the two months of our stay takes us to all the most interesting places on the coast. We visited the wonderful Horseshoe Bay and Capolina where Vancouver gets its water supply, the water being so pure that it does not need to be filtered even for medical purposes. It comes from the snow-capped mountains and is like the purest snow water. We did not care for the taste of it at first but got to like it. We also visited Lulua and Barnston Islands and were struck very much with their fertility. While on Lulua island we visited Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Gilbert, who took us to most places of interest, including the salmon cannery, where he explained all the different processes as he had been the foreman for four years, and understood all about it. While there we decided the salmon was very clean and learned to know the different brands by the marks on the cans. This has been rather a poor year for fish until the middle of September, when they have come in large numbers. Mr. Gilbert has a farm of about 80 acres of the choicest land and has a splendid home. While there we were glad to meet Mrs. Will Hutchison, who has since gone East. One farm on Lulua is owned by a Chinaman, with 160 acres all in potatoes and garden except five acres which he had in oats. These yielded 720 bushels from the 5 acres. This is a sample of the lands of the island and of the Ladner Delta land. We made a visit to Ladner and a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sloan All their friends will be glad to hear that they have such a comfortable home and an acre of land which almost yields their living. They are even more comfortable than in their Kimberley home, and on account of the mild climate would not exchange.

Anyone who has visited Grouse Mountains can understand how we appreciated the trip. It is 3600 ft. above Vancouver, and rises in about five miles by a motor road, which winds about until the top is reached. While up there we could see most of the best part of B.C. We could see almost to Blaine, where the divide is also the "Peace Yale" between B. C. and the United States , and the wonderful harbor and sea port of Vancouver out to Vancouver island, where all the big ships of the world come in. We could not begin to tell the wonders of the view. There were hundreds of boats of all kinds from the largest ocean liners to the old Indian in his canoe; immense scows loaded with cars of freight, lumber and logs, ten cars being the average on each scow. The cars are loaded and shipped from the islands on the scows to Vancouver port. The trip of four days to Seattle was also a great enjoyment, though its valleys and mountains, and loing over the beautiful Chuck-a-Nut drive was wonderful. The mountains are on one side and the waters of Puget Sound on the other.Seattle is a city of great activity. With its huge buildings, good traffic service and big shipping harbors. On our way coming home we went into the mountains and saw where the Carnation Milk is made. The farm buildings are all painted white on the inside and outside even the fences are white. Thousands of cows, mostly Jerseys are on the farms and around about and the milk is used to condense, everything is inspected and only a light standard of milk used.

The people of British Columbia are composed of all natives of the earth. At one mission a lady told us that there were 21 nationalities. We were struck in talking to many who formerly had their homes in Ontario, fully one half at least, we think have come from Ontario. We liked many of the foreigners and found them friendly in most cases, while there are many undersirable ones yet there are some who are the best of Canadians and will make good.

Advice is not always cheap

WHEN it concerns investments, advice may often prove very expensive.

If farmers went to a bank for investment advice instead of some inexperienced friend—if they knew how willing banks are to help people invest safely and profitably—millions of dollars would be saved each year.

In considering your next investment see the branch manager of the Bank of Toronto.

A Bank of Toronto manager is always glad to give advice—based not on guesswork or hearsay, but on investigation and facts.
