COMPLETED SPEAKING TOUR IN MANITOBA

Miss Agnes Macphail has just completed a speaking tour of Manitoba, under the auspices of the United Farmers of that province. At the 12 meetings which she addressed large audiences, she was heard with rapt attention and took as her topic "Tasks that lie ahead." With this she associated the Farmers' movement in Canada with that larger struggle of the common people of the world for economic liberty. She pointed out that we live in an age of organization and the last days of small business, showing the three stages of competition, public ownership and co-operation.

The points at which Miss Macphail spoke were Boissevain, Manitou,, Morris, Carman, Winnipeg, Swan River, Dauphin, Neepawa, Shoal Lake, Portage la Prairie and Hezelridge.

Wouldn't it be great if we were all as important as we think we are?

From the Mount Forest old boys' re-union there was a surplus after all expenses of $1,767. Of this sum honorarium of $300 was passed to Mr. Woods, secretary, in addition to $200 previously granted; $200 was given to the Agricultural society, $200 to the town band, which is now being organized and $500 to Mount Forest hospital, leaving a balance in the treasury of $576.

Road Nearly Impassable

The Provincial highway north of Fleserton is in a terrible condition after te heavy snow fall and the recent rains, and a large number of cars have had to be pulled out from the mire. About one hundred yards of highway at the Alcox corner, two miles and a half north of town was left in a quarter finished condition until the fall rains came and they could get at it. No the road is nearly impassable. Surely this piece of road could have been finished earlier and contruction discontinued before so much road was torn up.

Typist's error of one one-hundredth of a mill cost the city of Collumbus $1,426.60 in a recent election.

The boot and shoe output of Canadian factories in August inceased 23 per cent. Preparing for the season when most of us can't run around barefooted.

A man was up in court in Galt because a year ago he borrowed an auto to take his family for a ride and neglected to return the car. In the ranks of the absentminded he now takes precedence over the chap who lost a brass drum one 12th of July
