200 Snakes Plowed Up From Winter Quarters

A snake story that is true comes from the vicinity of Priceville and is not caused by too much "red-eye" or any other form of stimulant. It is an emulation of the patron saint of Ireland when he drove the snakes out of the Emerald Isle. While plowing on Monday Mr. Patrick Black of the 4th concession, Artemesia, turned up a nest of about two hundred snakes that had taken to the ground for their winter quarters. In an effort to exterminate the whole tribe a fence rail was brought into play and forty were dispatched, while the remainder were able to leave the vicinity of the slaughter in time.

Mrs. Christina Campbell Passed Away on Tues.

There passed away on Tuesday morning the 15inst Mrs. Christina Campbell at the ripe old age of 94 years. Emigrating to Canada with her husband, shortly after marriage, in 1856 by sailing vessel, being six weeks on the ocean. Arriving at Quebec, Montreal, Toronto and finally Owen Sound. They came from there to Durham and Rob Roy on a lumber wagon with the late Charles McArthur of Bunessan. She lived here continuously ever since near Priceville at the home of her son, Donald Campbell. A Mother of Israel she proved herself to be, to her neighbors in sorrow and trouble. A faithful attendant at church services when able, walking many miles to the old church at Smellie's corners. By the union were born to them 7 children, one of whom died at the age of 14. The others are all in good health, three of whom are in Montreal, but home for the funeral. Mrs. Donald Stewart (Mary) and Flora, living with her brother, and his wife, north of Priceville

The funeral service was largely attended by sympathizing friends and neighbors and was conducted by the Rev. E. E. Amand of Dundalk, who spoke very comfortingly, his subject dealing largely with the life here and the life beyond, and referred touchingly to the last days of her life in recalling scenes and reminiscenses of her early life in Scotland, in Gaelie, having a warm heart to the old "Psalms." "O God of Bethel by whose hand", and "O God our help in ages past" were sung as a tribute to her revered memory.

Pallbearers were all near neighbors: Alex. Stewart, Alex. Carson, Hector McLean, Duncan Sinclair, Angus Clark and John McLachlan who laid her body to rest in the north-east corner of the old cemetery, near her hsuband, who predeceased her 17 years ago. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to those who are bereaved of a dear old mother. Flowers were given as a loving tribute by the daughter in Montreal and by those at home. Friends from a distance were Mrs. Henry an old neighbor, and two sons of Toronto.
