Quite a number from here went to Flesherton to see Santa Claus Saturday and were delighted with the reception. All are watching for him here on the night of the annual Christmas tree. The jolly old fellow will be welcome.

PROTON STATION

Merry Christmas to every one.

Miss Marguerite Stinson is home from Bright.

Miss Marion Acheson is visiting her sister at Hopeville.

We are certainly having real Christmas weather. If this keeps up we are sure Santa will not need to desert his trusty reindeer and sleigh for airplane or car.

Miss Greenwood, our teacher, deserves great credit for the way her pupils rendered such a splendid programme on Friday evening. This was followed by a humorous play given by those who had gone to that school a few years ago entitled "Farm Folks" The Christmas tree was also well decorated and well filled.

A few cars are yet to be seen on the roads but the snow is quite deep for them.

PORTLAW

The windstorm of last week did considerable damage to property in this locality. Some windmills came to grief, but perhaps the most serious was the unroofing of Mr. Herb. Badgerow's barn and Mr. Skinner's implement house. At this time of year the loss and inconvenience is especially regrettable.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. W. J. Reid is suffering from an attack of sciatica.

Mr. Charles Fenwick of the fourth line held a successful auction sale of farm stock and effects on Thursday last. Notwithstanding the stormy day fair prices were realized.

Miss McCannel and pupils are busy practising for their Christmas concert to be given on Thursday evening of next week, Dec. 22, at 8 o'clock.

FEVERSHAM

The cars will soon have to lay up here now, as there is rather too much snow in places for them to get along.

Mr. T. W. Conron as returned home after spending the summer sailing.

Mr. Ivan Alexander of Owen Sound is spending a few days at his home here.

Mr. Geo. Pallister of Maxwell is visiting with friends here.

Mr. A. J. Conron is in poor health at present, but we hope to see him better again soon.

The bazaar and baking sale held by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid on the tenth of December was a splendid success. The proceeds amounted to over eighty dollars clear.

Early Election A Success

FOR the first time in the history of the town of Orangeville, we made the experiment of holding municipal elections on the last Monday of November and the elections on the first Monday in Deecmber. It has proven to be an unqualified success in every way. Weather conditions are generally much more favorable at the earlier date than they are a month later. On Monday of last week larger vote was polled than in previous election and more int was evinced by the citizens i campaign. But one great adv of the earlier date is that our municipal affairs, so far as the council, public school board and hydro commission are concerned, are settled before the Christmas holiday season is ushered in. In other words our election campaign does not interfere with business and business men are not hampered by taking more interest in our civic affairs. As Christmas comes on Sunday this year nominations will be held on the Monday, the day that will be eclebrated as Christmas, and elections will take place on the day that will be observed as New Year's in municipalities that still cling to the old dates.—Orangeville Sun.
