Do you wish the world were happy?
Then remember day by day
Just to scatter seeds of kindness
As you pass along the way.
For the pleasure of the many
Maybe oftentimes traced to one,
As the hand that plantst the acorn
Shelters armies from the sun.

Santa Claus Day Was Greet Success

The people of Flesherton are very much pleased over the success of the fourth anual Santa Claus day and the committee in charge reports a larger attendance than last year, there being 650 youngsters in town. This is remarkable in view of the fact that Markdale also had a counter attraction a numberthe same afternooniteheree the same afternoon, and quite a number of families were quarantined for measles and mumps in the surrounding district.

Santa had a real busy day racing around and amusing the youngsters. The mysterious shopper was Mr. Carl Humberstone of the East Mountain and he was caught at 2 p.m. by Miss Florence Welton, who addressed him correctly and won the prize of $5. Perhaps the feature that attracted the most attention was the cat and dog exhibit put on by T. W. Findlay. There were 88 cats on exhibition and six dogs competed in the races. There were black cats, brown, grey and white cats, yellow cats, spotted cats, long-tailed cats and short-tailed cats cats with long hair and cats with short hair, percheron—no, Persian—cats, Canadian and U. S. cats, cats that spit and cats that chew. We heard a lot of them chewing. There were sedate cats and comical cats. The only varieties not present were bob cats and cat-o'-nine tails. They were a gentlemanly and lady-like bunch of cats. We did not hear one of 'em use a cuss word, such as is indulged in by some disreputable felines at night on the back fence.

On account of the large crowd it was impossible to declare a winner in an interesting dog race, as the crowd surged in on the course and blocked the track, but everyone was pleased, as there were some real dog fights staged. Mr. Findlay is awarding prizes to all those taking part in the races and hopes that even more will compete next year. The committee wish to thank everyone who contributed in money or in any other way to make the annual day a success for the children. A kind invitation is extended to everyone to come back again next year. Following are the winners in the cat and dog exhibit:

Black Cat—Delbert Smith 1, Marie Fenwick, R.R. 2, Flesherton 2nd; White Cat—1st Donelda McDonald, 2 Joe Gibson; Maltest Cat—1st Leslie Ferris, 2nd Mervin McFadden; Cat with 2 colors—1st Georgina Blackburn 2nd John Monaghan, Rock Mills; Cat with 3 Colors—1st Ethel Dargavel, Rock Mills, Bob Bellamy; Persian Cat—1st Jack Down, Markdale, 2nd Cecil Gibson; Mother Cat and Kittens — 1st Jim Thurston, 2nd Dorothy Genoe, Eugenia; Kitten not full grown—1st Jack Monaghan, Rock Mills, 2nd Gordon Semple; Persian not full grown—1st Evanson Wilson; Persian under 6 months, Earl Thurston.

Messrs. Cooper and Smith of the Department of Agriculture, Markdale, officiated as judges. Very keen competition and much interest was taken in the exhibit and the room was crowded all afternoon and as many as sixteen cats were in one class.

Dog Races—Mervyn Johnson, Delbert Smith, Stanley Magee, Robt. Clark, Robt. Dargavel.

Best Mannered Dog—R. Dargavel.
