THANKS

During August, September and October the Chevrolet Motor Co. organized a Dealer's Sales campaign throughout the Dominion. An objective was set for each dealer, the objective being arrived at from the dealer's sales in April, May and June.

Several prizes were offered to the dealers who reached their objective, and we are pleased to say that Flesherton went over the top, and our choice of the prizes offered was a new Beatty Electric Washing Machine.

We take this opportunity of extending our thanks to all those who purchased cars during these three months and made it posssible for us to win this beautiful prize.

Freight Wreck on C.P.R. North of Flesherton Sta.

A bad wreck on the Owen Sound branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway took place early Tuesday morning between the Markdale and Flesherton stations when a car loaded with grain jumped the track. Five other loaded cars also left the rails and the track was torn up for a distance of about 250 feet. The morning passenger train was not able to come through and upon the arrival of the noon train from Toronto the passengers were transferred at the scene of the wreck and proceeded on their way. A wrecking train was dispatched from Toronto and the track was cleared and repaired, enabling the evening train to come through, although it was considerably late. The cause of the accident is unknown.

The Late Geo. Wright

The following on the life of the late George Wright of Proton township was received too late for publication last week:

(By John Aldcorn, Swinton Park)

George Wright wsa born on November 15th, 1854 in Nassagaweya Township, Halton County, and died December 5th, 1927, aged 74 years. He was buried on December 7th in Salem United Church cemetery, Rev. S. G. McCormack, his pastor, of Priceville conducting services at the house and grave. The pall-bearers were six old neighbors: Neil McMillan, John McNalty, George Black, W. R. Richardson, John and William Haw. A large and representative gathering of neighbors and friends paid their last tribute of respect by their presence, and much sympathy is expressed for Mrs Wright and family in this, their second bereavement in so short a time.

Mr. Wright came to Proton in the fall of the year 1880, 47 years ago. He bought lot 17, concession 17, and there he has lived ever since. In 1883 he married Bella Dow, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dow, of this place, and they together, by honest endeavor, builded a home. To them were born nine children, one dying in infancy and being buried in Swinton Park cemetery, and the youngest daughter, Miss Lizzie, who was buried only two weeks ago. Besides Mrs. Wright the other members of the family left to mourn are: Annie, Mrs. Selwyn McLean, Honeywood; Mary, Mrs. Sam Coulter, of Shackleton, Sask.; John and Andrew on nearby farms; Howard of Flesherton, Edward in Priceville and Wilfred at home, all of whom can look back with pleasure and respect to a father who made a success of life and who set them an example which they might worthily follow.

All feel, especially the older people who shared with Mr. Wright the struggles of 45 years ago, that we have lost a friend. George Wright was ambitious and energetic to a marked degree, not only at home, but as we remember him in the early days at the logging-bee or barn-raising; he was ever in the front and saying, "Come on, boys." No laggard was he. In Swamp College school-section Mr. Wright has taken a great interest during all these years, acting in capacity of trustee often, and for many years as secretary-treasurer.

In 1897 he was elected to the council of the township of Proton, which office he filled for the next eight years. He then retired for some years, but followed up the workings of the Council continually and was again a member for some years, being Reeve for the years 1920-21-22. In his public life he carried with him the same vigor and ambition that characterized all his private undertaking. Thus, for 25 years, he was in the eye of the public; though often criticized, he was never cast down, nor ever was found neglectful of his duties as he saw them.

Those who knew him best will cherish his memory while life lasts. We can all say we are glad that we knew George Wright. The example he set and the works that wrought in his home section are worthy of being followed.
