Vol 47 No. 30 | Flesherton, Ontario December 28, 1927 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

EUGENIA

We hope the editor and staff and the many readers of The Advance had a very merry Christmas and we join in wishing them a happy and prosperous year in 1928.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 21st, our school concert was held in the L.O. L. hall here. There was a good attendance as the night was fine. Councillor Robt. Purvis most capably filled the position of chairman. The program was well rendered, each child playing his or her part well. The sunbeam dance by a number of little girls was of special mention and received an encore. There was a Rooster drill by a number of little boys, which was quite unique. There were several dialogues amongst which was "The Painted Chair," "Uncle Hiram's Cold," "Circumstances Alter Cases," and "Harry's Pockets." Recitations choruses, drills and a song completed the program, after which jolly old Santa Claus (Mr. Russel Park) entered and distributed the gifts from off the well-laden tree. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the teacher and those who assisted in preparing such a good program. The proceeds amounted to $27.00.

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the United Church will be held in the church on Thursdac, January 5th at 2.30 p.m. All those interested should attend.

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of S. S. No. 13 will be held in the school here on Wednesday of this week.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed next Sunday in the United church here at the regular hour of 3 o'clock.

Mr. Chas. Park of Detroit is spending a week's holidays at his parental home here.

Misses Mary and Isabel McKee of Toronto came up Saturday noon to spend a few holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. McKee. Mary returned to Toronto on Monday, while Isabel will remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lever and family, Flesherton.

Mr. Sam McDonald of Toronto Normal School is holidaying at his home on the Eighth Line. The McDonald family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sherwood. Mrs. Chas. Quesnel and family of Owen Sound were also Christmas visitors with Mr. and Mr. Sherwood.

Mrs. J. E. Large of Niagara Falls sent a beautiful artificial wreath to Mrs. Adam Smith, who is to place it for her, over the Roll of Honour in the United Church here, in fond memory of her dear mother, the late Mrs. Peter Munshaw, and in recollection of the dear boys, whose names are written there. Much credit is due Mrs. Large for her thoughtfulness and kindness.

Mr. Kilbourne Magee of the West spent the past week with relatives here.

Mr Rody Gordon of Oshawa is spending the Christmas holidays with his wife and family at Mr. James Leppard's.

Mr. Russel Cameron of the Toronto University is holidaying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis and daughter, Shirley, motored up from Toronto on Saturday to spend a few holidays with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Purvis.

Miss Mildred Johnston, teacher, is holidaying with her parents at Kemble.

Other holiday visitors in the village are Miss Viola Williams of Toronto with her parents; Mr. Ray Genoe of Toronto at his parental home; Miss Mabel Hoy of Toronto at her home; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and family of Walkerton with relatives here; Mr. Henderson and family of Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams.

OSPREY NOMINATION

The nominations at Maxwell on Friday last for the offices of Reeve, Deputy-Reeve and Councillors was well attended and resulted in all of last year's council being returned by acclamation. The 1928 council will be composed of:

Reeve—Wm. L. Taylor.

Deputy-Reeve—Wm. Edwards.

Councillors—Sylvester Clark, John Grummett, R. J. Morrison.

Reeve Taylor will have an excellent chance this year to bring the Wardenship to Osprey Township.

BREAKING THE SPEED RECORD

Miss Bernice Smith, Shelburne, entered our college the first week of September, and the last week of November, wrote 56 net words per minute for 15 minutes, according to the Underwood rules. Incidentally, Miss Smith is also taking shorthand at 80 and turning out beautiful letters, with her other subjects accordingly. THREE MONTHS.

Also, Miss Luella Johnston, Orangeville, who entered the first week in September, wrote 57 net words per minute, according to Underwood rules and is a close second to Miss Smith in the other subjects. THREE MONTHS.

Furthermore, Miss Margaret Noble at Hornings Mills, who also entered our college the first week in September has obtained her bronze medal, and has" covered herself with glory" in other subjects. THREE MONTHS.

Again Miss Ethel McLelland, Arthur; who entered our school the second week in September, wrote 42 net words per minute, the last week in November, with equal proficiency in her other subjects.

We have several others almost as good.

"Oh boy," what a speed these girls will obtain, and what a salary they will command in July!

MR. SPECKLES' IDEA

Santa Claus sat on a bench next the sunny side of the north pole bungalow. The old gentleman wore a worried and harassed look quite foreign to his usual jovial expression. Sam Speckles, a foreman in one of Santa's toy shops, passed by and noticed the good old saint. "What's the matter, Santa," he asked.

"This job's getting too big for one man," answered Santa. "The world's getting better and better all the time and that means I have that much more work to do, and it's getting to be a mighty hard task to make things enough to go around, let alone distributing them.

Mr. Speckles scratched his head. "Well," he said, "here's an idea, and I think it's a mighty good one. Remember that fine magazine full of pictures and stories and nice things you had the other day?" "Oh, you mean The Youth's Companion," said Santa. "Yes, that's it," answered Sam "Well, it seems to me that if you'll tell a lot of parents about that magazine and how fine and enjoyable it was for the boys and girls they'd give subscriptions to The Youth's Companion as a Christmas gift to lots of young folk, and that would help you a lot."

"That's a mighty good idea," said Santa, "and, as a matter of fact, many parents do just that already, but—" Santa sighed, "I wish that more of them realized what a fine gift the Youth's Companion makes, and would give it too."

ress below, and we will see to it that our Uncle Sam relieves Santa of the burden of delivering at least one gift Subscribers will receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—12 big monthly issues in 1928, and
2. Two extra numbers to new subscribers ordering within 30 days.

All for only $2.

3. The Companion's new book of humor "1001 One Minute Stories" also included FREE (Send 10 cts. to cover postage and handling.
