Died At Early Age

Quite suddenly on Saturday evening, January 21, 1928, Jean Elizabeth Stewart, aged two years, 5 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stewart, Artemesia, passed away. She was apparently in the best of health until stricken with double pneumonia on Thursday night and from the first little or no hope was held for her recovery. She had won a place in her parents' affections and endeared herself to friends and relatives by her pleasant manner and bright disposition.

She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing parents, and her sister, Hazel.

The funeral service was held at the home on Tuesday, January 24, with Rev. J. H. Pogson officiating. The friends sang appropriate hymns, including the one little Jean had been taught to sing, "Jesus Loves Me, This I Know, for the Bible Tells Me So." The service was most impressive and many were touched by the reference to the little girl's habit of saying her prayers and the evident signs of her Christian upbringing. The burial took place in Badgeros cemetery after a brief service in the church for the friends of the family who were not able to come to the house. Badgeros Shrigleydistrict was the home of Mr. Stewart, and many sympathizing friends were present.

The pallbearers were Roy Grummett, Gordon Jackson, George Talbot and Ernest Nicholls.

Floral tributes were received from porents and sister, the Stewart family, also from Oscar and Cecil Stewart and from s.s. No. 4, Osprey.

Among the friends from a distance were Ernie Grummett, from Thornbury; Mr. Oscar Stewart, from Toronto, and Miss Cora Stewart, G. and M. hospital, Owen Sound.—Dundalk Herald.

Flesherton 12, Durham 4

A large crowd witnessed the game on Thursday night of last week between the Durham Juniors and the local Cougars, when they came together in their first struggle this year The game was fast throughout, there being good combination and team play on both sides.

The first period started at a terrible clip, but before Durham could get going Lively scored on a pass from Nuhn. Both teams were at their best and going hard. Blair, Durham right-winger, got one past Gracey and then it looked as if a see-saw game was in sight. This couldn't last very long, just then Doc shot one past Lavelle, which put the home team two in the lead. The first period ending 3-1 in favor of Flesherton.

Things looked pretty good for Flesherton at the beginning of the second period, the only thing that they were suspicious about was that Durham just got warmed up and would make a cloud burst now. But after five minutes of play all doubts were cast aside from the Cougar's minds. Lively and Nuhn combined, Lively shooting and banging the twine for another counter. Thurston came right back in good form with a lone rush and secured another. They were coming fast now when Doc. secured another feather in his cap, when Thurston passed to him in front of the net. This was heartbreaking for the Durham boys so Elvidge and Blair combined and went through, bringing the Durham count up to two, with Blair coming back in quick order for another one. Thurston and Lively made a combined effort, Thurston shooting and bringing the end of the second period to a close, the score being 7-3, still in the Cougar's favor.

Durham saw their doom unless they could stop the Cougars from coming in past the defence and shooting, as Lavelle but thy soon found out it was particular night. The first thing that crossed their minds was to watch Lively, but they soon found out it was hard to do, as Doc. worked his way around and shot a terrific one that Lavelle did not even see. Armstrong then shot at an open net with a pass from MacDonald. Lively was given a minor penality by referee Dow and when the right-winger was on his holidays, the Durham boys saw their chance and McCombe rushed and brought the first goal of that period into their bosom. McDonald then scored two in qhick succession with Lively closing the Cougar's rampage with another on a pass from Armstrong. Durham just had to have another and McGirr, the centre man, got it.

The game was fairly clean throughout, only two penalities being handout. only two penalties being handthat. The Durham boys are a good clean bunch and it is hoped that Flesherton can play them a return game in the near future. John Dow handled the bell to the satisfaction of both the players and spectators.

The following are the players:

Durham—Goal, Lavelle; Defence, McCombe and McIlraith; Centre, McGirr; Wings, Elvidge and Blair; Subs. Vollet and Murdock.

Flesherton Goal, Gracey; Defence, Boyd and Thurston; Centre Nuhn; Wings, Lively and MacDonald; Subs. Armstrong and Chercott.

Referee—J. Dow, Flesherton

THE ORIGIN OF ARTEMESIA

One Queen Artemesia, as old stories tell,
When deprived of her husband she loved so well. —Burns.

ARTEMESIA is a Greek word, meaning a herb like wormwood. It is also a proper name. Herodotus mentions Artemesia, the daughter of Lygdamis, queen of Halicarnassus and other cities of Caria. Artemesia queen of Mausolus, king of Caria raised to the memory of her husband a splendid sepulchre, whence the term mausoleum for any splendid tomb. Queen Artemesia of Halicarnassus displayed great skill and valor at the battle of Salamis, but her conduct of putting out the eyes of Dardanus and then drowning herself to make atonement for her cruelty to the object of her unrequited affection, does not accord with her previous reputation for wisdom. The botanical term, Artemesia was adopted because wormwood was dedicated to Artemis, the Greek Diana. —Durham Review.
