Where do You Keep Your Valuable Papers

The whereabouts of your valuables is nobody's business but your own, and for that very reason they should be placed beyond the reach of meddling persons, thieves, or elements which compromise their security. Use a safety deposit box in your nearest branch of the Standard Bank. It is the most convenient method of keeping documents, jewels and other small objects of value.

Local and Personal

This is your home paper; send in all the news you can.

Mr. J. E. Jenkins of Toronto spent the week end with his wife here.

Mrs. Douglass of Feversham is waiting on Mrs. Bert Magee.

Mrs. Jack McCowell of Toronto is spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. Bert Magee.

Mr. and Mrs. Marall Betts of Toronto are spending a few days at the former's home near Rock Mills.

What we can't understand about the radio is how the static knows you have company that night.

Mr. George Jamieson has returned to Timmins last week after spending some time with his mother here.

Miss Rose McGirr of Feversham spent a few days this week with Mrs. W. H. Thurston.

Ice cutting was commenced on Monday on the big pond in town by Mr. Robt. Ferris. The ice is quite clear and about fourteen inches in thickness.

The L. O. B. A. will hold their regular meeting in Clayton's hall on Friday night of this week. All members please attend.

Mr. Dan McDonald of Toronto attended the funeral of his brother on Friday and is at present visiting relatives in the South Line.

Mrs. R. Porteous has returned home from Owen Sound hospital on Monday, where she has been for the past nine weeks recovering from a broken leg.

Mr. Fred Thompson of Newmarket attended the funeral of his uncle, the late Malcolm McDonald, on Friday and spent the week end with relatives in town.

The senior room of the public schol opened on Monday and the Junior room on Tuesday after an enforced holdiday caused by the measley epidemic.

Don't forget to notify friends and relatives now resident in Detroit and Windsor about the big re-union of Grey County folks at a dance at the Masonic Temple, Detroit, on 21st February, 1928. Everybody welcome.

Mr. Alfred Down was in Toronto a few days last week attending a service school for Ford dealers. He was accompanied by Preston York of Markdale, who is mechanic in the Down garage at that place.

Mr. Jas. Stafford has withdrawn his auction sale, which was scheduled to have taken place this Thursday afternoon. We understand that the parties proposing to rent the property withdrew from the deal.

Three cars, owned by Jas. Dargavel, B. Fields and Ned Croft, came in from Rock Mills on Saturday evening under their own power. As the roads are fairly well packed by teams drawing lumber it is easier for cars to navigate. Except for certain places on the roads the snow is not very deep. Saturday afternoon cars were able to reach Ceylon.

Mr. Harvey Wilkerson of Regina visited friends here for a couple of days last week. It is 22 years since Harvey visited Flesherton. He was an adopted son of the late Thomas Grainger, who resided on the West Back Line, Artemesia. Mr. Wilkerson pays a high tribute to Flesherton boys whom he has met in the West. He says he never met one who has been a disgrace to his home town.

Wm. Sloan Writes Of Early Artemesia Days

Mr. Wm. Sloan of British Columbia sends us the following interesting items regarding the early days in Artemesia Township:

I was born at Streetsville, Toronto Township, Peel county, on July 20, 1853, and moved with my parents to lot 37, 10th con., Artemesia, in the year 1855. I saw the beginning of the settlement and heard the wolves howl and the wildcats scream around our log house. I saw the first grain thresher to be brought into the township. It was just a horsepower driven by one span mules, two yokes of oxen and one span of horses. It just had the cylinder. Two men raked the straw away with hand rakes and the grain and chaff dropped onto the barn floor. My father cleared about 60 acres and then moved to Eugenia in March of 1864. The residents of Eugenia at that time were: Mr. R. McLean Purdy, postmaster; Mr. Edward Glenning, miller; Mr. Wm. Little ran the sawmill; Rev. Woodward, Episcopal minister; Mr. Elliott, shoemaker; Mr. John Long and Mr. Samuel Halstead, hotel keepers; S. T. Whiting, carpenter; Jacob Sloan, millwright; John Williams and James Saunders, carpenters; old Mrs. Hawkens, resident; Mr. Charles Elick, grocery, where Henry Cairns is now; Mr. William and Mr. Alexander Purdy were in the Cuckoo Valley, now Kimberley, building grist and sawmills. J. B. Sloan built them for the Messrs. Purdy.

I remember all the pioneers from Osprey to Eugenia on the 9th and 10th concessions If there is anything any person would like to know about this district I will be glad to answer any questions. Living at Mr. Purdy's was Grandma Purdy, her daughter, Mrs. Hadley and the latter's two daughters, Fidelia and Addie, also Mr. Hiram Bowerman. Rev. Woodward's family were Wesley, Marion, Theophilus and daughter Melissa. Jacob Sloan's family consisted of John, Mehitable, William H., Jacob, James, Annie and Walker.

At the time of our tagging up residents at Eugenia there was only a sleigh road cut through the woods. I left a number of substantial houses which I built in Artemesia and Euphrasia. I am now in British Columbia, where the climate is beautiful. I often think of Flesherton and its surroundings, and the good people there.

Told of Grey's School Fair

Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale agricultural representative for Grey, was one of the chief speakers at the annual meting of the Ontario Fall Fairs Asociation held in Toronto on Wednesday and Thursday of last week Mr. Cooper's subject was "The School Fairs," and with the experience he has had in this work and the success which has attended his efforts, no one is better qualified to speak on such a subject than the Grey County man. Mr. Cooper also went into detail with respect to the organization of the championship school fair. The convention was very much interested in his address and he was asked a number of questions at the close, which he very readily answered and was also interrogated privately with regard to certain details by representatives of Fall Fairs who are interested. It was generally acknowledged that Grey has taken a leading part in the introduction and development of the school fairs, and Mr. Cooper's remarks on the subject were much appreciated.

PRAY FOR US DURING OUR FEBRUARY SUBSCRIPTION COLLECTION CAMPAIGN

The evangelist was just finishing one of his services, "Let those in the house who are paying their debts, stand up!" he cried. Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception rose to their feet.

The preacher asked them to sit down again." Now every man not paying his debts now stand up." The one exception assumed a perpendicular position.

How is it, my friend, asked the evangelist, "that you are the only man who is not meeting his obligations?"

"I run a newspaper," he answered, and the brethern here who stood up are my subscribers, and—"

"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.

RADIO EPIGRAMS

It is better to give than to receive, but it requires more expensive apparatus.

All speches and no jazz makes the radio set a dull toy.

Antennae wise and sound foolish.

Fools rush in where the angels fear to broadcast.

Early to bed and early to rise makes a man miss all the grill-room orchestras.

One good turn deserves another.

You can tell a man by the station he keeps.

Two head sets are better than one.

Distance makes the heart grow fonder.

Malcolm McDonald Passed Suddenly

Death claimed on Wednesday of last week Mr. Malcolm McDonald of town, a most highly respected citizen, after only a short illness of two months. The deceased has been ailing for several years, but was forced to give up working the middle of November and was confined to the house to the last. He was 62 years of age and was born on the South Line, Artemesia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McDonald, who had migrated to Canada from Scotland when they were newly married. He has resided in this township and village all his life. Here, when a young man, he learned the brick-laying and stone mason trade with Mr. John Wright and was a skilled workman. He was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and was a member of St. John's United Church.

Thirty-four years ago he was married to Miss Hannah Thompson of Flesherton and the union was blessed with four children, two girls and two boys. One son and one daughter died while quite young. Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves to mourn a kind and indulgent father, one daughter, Maud (Mrs. Wm. Turney) of town and one son, Edward, at home. He is also survived by three brothers, Dan, of Toronto, John of Flesherton, Alex. on the homestead, and two sisters, Mrs. Jos. Ferris of Priceville and Mrs. Jos. Watson of Saugeen Jct.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, February 10th, service being held in the house. Rev. Jos. Harrower preached a very comforting sermon to the relatives. There was a large number in attendance to pay their last respects to a man who was highly regarded by all who knew him

An abundance of flowers banked the casket and were from the following relatives and friends: wreath from the family; pillow, L.O.L. and L.O.B.A., wreath, the brothers; wreath, John McDonald and family; sprays, Hockey Club, Bell Telephone Co., Alex. McDonald of Weston; The Advance, Jos. Ferris and family, Eastern Star, teachers and pupils of the public school, young ladies' class of St. John's United Church, sheaf of roses from Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Phillips.

The pallbearers were two brothers, two Orangemen and two Foresters: Mark Wilson, C. N. Richardson, A Watson, Gordon Warling, Dan and John McDonald.

Much sympathy is expressed by all to the sorrowing family in the great loss they have sustained.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mrs. H. Freeman is spending a few days in Markdale with her mother, who is ill.

Sunday school in the St. John's United Church will reassemble Sunday next, after having been closed for the past few weeks on account of the measles epidemic.

HOCKEY — DUNDALK & PROTON

Dundalk Wild Cats and the Proton Station Wanderers hitch up for a game of hockey in the Flesherton rink on Thursday evening of this week, when an interesting game is to be staged. The last time Dundalk won at home 5-4, and Proton says the score will be reversed this time.

A fall on an icy sidewalk in which she broke her arm on the eve of her marriage did not prevent Miss Florence Smith, of Cundles, near Barrie from keeping her appointment at the altar of St. Mary's R. C. church. With the broken arm in splints she was married on scheduled time to James L. Toner of Phelpstone. The honeymoon has been postponed until a further date.
