Messrs. Neil MacLeod of Swinton Park and Angus MacArthur, spent Friday in Hanover on business.

Miss Mary MacKinnon visited one day recently at Mr. Alex. Carson's.

We extend our heartiest congratulaitons to Miss Islay MacCuaig and Mr. Henry Tucker, who were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Feb. 4th, in Victoria Presbyterian church Toronto, by the Rev. D. T. L. McKerrol. The bride wore a dainty frock of beige satin crepe, with hose and shoes to match. Her travelling costume was of royal blue flat crepe with Persian lamb coat. After a short honeymoon in Toronto and Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will reside on the groom's farm.

The Willing Helpers met in the hall on Friday with a good attendance. tendance.

The Mission Band held a very successful Valentine social in the hall on Friday evening. The evening was spent in a short program—games and contests. Lunch was then served.

The proceeds of the concert was nearly twelve dollars.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLachlan on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14th, when their neighbors and others of the Presbyterian congregation gathered to make a presentation to one of the members of the congregation in the person of Miss Irene MacLean. Miss MacLean for the past year has kept the financial records for the congregation and has rendered faithful service. Mr. Thomas Nichol called the meeting to order and stated that we had all met for a good purpose. The following address was read by Mrs. Dan L. MacArthur and the presentation was made by Miss Sadie Carson and Miss Marie MacLachlan:

Dear Irene,—Throughout the past year you have rendered a silent but nevertheless efficient and great service to our church. We know you take great pleasure and pride in performing this work and now we wish to express in a tangible though meagre measure, our appreciation and gratitude, hence we ask you to accept this wrist watch. We regret exceedingly that poor health deprives you of attendance at the church services, and that we thus are denied the privilege of your cheering and inspiring presence among us, but we are assured that your disability brings you in closer touch with the Great Physician, which contact is the secret of your sweet, pure life. May this little timepiece constantly record moments ever full of grace with messages of love apace.

Signed on behalf of the Priceville Presbyterian congregation.

Angus MacLachlan,
Archie N. McCuaig.

Miss Irene voiced her appreciation in a few well-chosen words and thanked them for their kindness though taken completely by surprise. The remainder of the evening was spent in games, contests, music, and social chat. Lunch was served by the hostess and her helpers. Everybody went home after spending a very enjoyable evening.

A real storm hit this part all last week, a large quantity of snow fell and it was accompanied by a high wind, filling the roads with snow The mail was unable to get through one day on account of the heavy drifts on the roads.

Mr. Louis Frooks and Robt. Watson of Proton shipped a carload of cattle to Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks Sundayed at Mr. Allan MacLean's.

Mr. Alfred Hincks intends to commence teaching again on Monday, after been off duty a couple of weeks with the measles.

Mr.Murray Nichol came home from Toronto hospital, where he has had the scarlet fever. Sorry to report his little brother Kenneth has it now.

Mrs. A. L. Hincks is spending a few days with friends at Proton.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly helped us during the sickness of Mrs. Wm. Parker. —Wm. Parker and family.

Singhampton Man Died Very Suddenly

After only a short illness from pneumonia Mr. Napoleon Crevier of Singhampton died at his home there at the early age of 41 years. Deceased had only been ill about a week and his death was a great shock to the community in which he was a citizen highly respected by everyone.

The late Mr. revier was born in Toronto 41 years ago, and resided there until twelve years ago, when he moved to the farm at Singhampton. In 1911 he married Miss Annie Elliott of Toronto, who survives him, and to them were born two children—Elliott and Norma—who are also at home. The funeral took place from his late residence on Friday afternoon and was very largely attended by the friends of Singhampton and Duntroon. Rev. Elmer Young preached a very comforting sermon from Revelations 21:4: "The cure for sorrow," and also officiated at the grave. Interment took place in Singhampton cemetery.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. A. Durnan, J. Carroll, Mrs. Charles Greenwood, John Jenkins, Thos. Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jenkins, all of Toronto. The funeral tributes were abundant and testified to the love and sympathy for the deceased and his family, and were from the following: Public school, Anglican Ladies' Guild, Men of Singhampton, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Crevier & Clark and Rolph, Clark & Stone of Toronto; Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, and Duntroon friends, Miss Russell, Wm. Hammell and R. J. Campbell, besides a wreath from the family and tokens from other relatives.

The pallbearers included Messrs. Wm. Neff, Basil Neff, A. Duncan, J. Carroll, John Jenkins and Thomas Jenkins.

Bereaved in The West

Coronation (Alberta) Review.

The sympathy of the entire community will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parslow in the sudden illness and death of their only daughter Mary. She had been to town with her parents last Tuesday, apparently in normal health. On Wednesday evening she was taken ill with a violent headache. Medical assistance was called and on Thursday she was taken to the hospital. The illness proved to be spinal meningitis and she passed away early on Friday morning.

Mary, who would have been twelve years old next month, was a very general favorite with all who knew her and her death is a very heavy blow to her grief-stricken parents. Owing to the contagious nature of the disease, it was not possible to hold the usual funeral service, but the esteem in which the family is held and the sincere sympathy of many friends was expressed in numerous floral offerings and the great number who followed in the funeral procession to the cemetery.

A brief service was held at the cemetery conducted by Rev. G. D. Armstrong of Trinity United Church.

How the child contracted the disease is a mystery as this is the only case in this neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Parslow wish to express their deep appreciation of all the kindness shown to them in their time of bereavement.

Rev. Geo. Kendall Suffered a Stroke

Rev.George Kendall, United Church minister at Maxwell, is in a serious condition at his home as a result of a paralytic stroke which came on him some time Wednesday last. Mr. Kendall was to have conducted a funeral on Thursday, and when the hour of service had drawn near and Mr. Kendall had not yet put in an appearance a call was made at his home, where he resides alone. On getting no response from within, entry was made to the house where he was found lying on the floor unconscious. Medical aid was immediately summoned. The stroke had evidently come on him some time the previous evening and he had lain unconscious for about sixteen hours.

Mr. Kendall is resting comfortably at his home with Nurse Burritt of Kimberley in attendance. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery. His son, Douglass, of Toronto, is with his father and took charge of his work at Maxwell on Sunday.

PORTLAW

Mr. Hugh Hardy, Jr. of the third line underwent a critical operation last week. We are glad to hear he is doing well.

This community has learned with very much regret of the serious illness of Rev. Mr. Kendall. All hope for his early restoration and to see him about his work in his usual vigor.

Mr. Fred Taylor met with an accident recently while working in the bush. He and a neighbor were engaged in sawing wood when a loose limb fell from a tree striking him on the head, and for a time rendering him unconscious. Fortunately the injury was not a serious one, as at the time was feared and he is about his usual duties again.

Mr. James Scott of Alberta spent some days visiting at the home of Mr. James Hopps, and calling on other friends.

Mrs. L. H. Sheardown, and Donald visited the past week with relatives in Toronto and elsewhere.

Mr. Christopher Lougheed has leased Mr. J. J. Little's farm and is removing his chattles thereto.

Mr. S. Hemphill of Ceylon was busy with his buzzing billy at J. H. Watson's last week.

A word of commendation has been earned by our mail couriers, Messrs McEachnie and Brodie, whose experience during the severe storms have not been always the most enjoyable. They have had their ups and downs; and sometimes when they got down it was not easy to get up, but with commendable courage and their faces resolutely set to the storm they start off again with this song in their hearts:—

But what is the use of repinning,
For where there's a will there's a way
And to-morrow the sun may be shinning
Although it is cloudy to-day.

Rev. J. F. McLaren, a former minister at Temple Hill, near Rocklyn, has died at San Jose, California.

LADY BANK

Still continues to storm, with snow piled high and deep in every corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sewell entertained the young people of the neighborhood to a social evening on Friday of last week, and all spent a pleasant time.

Mrs. Jno. Ottewell spent a few days last week with Mrs. Jas. Porteous, Eighth line, Artemesia.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Sayers of town line Collingwood was the guest of the former's sister, Mrs. Walter Wilson, and husband one day last week.

Mr. Stewart McMullen is spending a few days at present with his two sisters and other friends in the city.

The people of Providence and neighborhood were very much grieved to learn of the serious illness of their pastor, Rev. George Kendall. We wish the aged pastor a speedy recovery.

The Rev. Kendall, Jr. conducted the services at Providence on Sunday last in stead of his father, who was unable to attend. A fair good crowd was in attendance in spite of the storm and bad roads, and listened with interest to a well rendered sermon.

The Ladies' Aid held a very successful meeting at the home of Mrs. Joe Sewell on Feb. 8th, with most of the members present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Hindle on March 7th.

Mrs. George Dobson was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Semple and daughters on Friday of last wek.

Mr. Clarence Semple, and two children of Flesherton, accompanied by Mrs. Steve Sutton spent a few days last week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Semple and family.
