CARD OF THANKS

To the many neighbors and friends we wish to express our deep appreciation of numerous acts of kindness and sympathy extended during the recent illness and death of our son and brother, also our husband and father. — Mrs. A. J. Conron, family.

PRICEVILLE

House cleaning and making maple syrup is the order of the day around here. Maple syrup will be abnormally scarce this year, unless the weather soon brings some frosty nights, is the prediction of local farmers. It is claimed that when the frost is out of the ground the maple syrup harvest is over.

While loading logs at the station, Mr. John McMeekin (Jr.) fell out of a car backwards and hit his head on the end of a log. The wound required some stitches to close.

Visitors home over the holiday were: Miss Marjorie McLean, and sister, Flo., Miss Sadie McKinnon, Miss Nellie McLean, Miss Doris and Olive MacLean, Mr. Murray Nichol, Clifford Hincks, Florence and Eva Carson, all of Toronto; Miss Esther MacLean of Melancthon, Alroy McLean of Orangeille, Anna Mary McLean of Bunessan, Alex. McLean of Mono Centre, Wilda McLean of Tierton, Ida Hincks of Eugenia, Donalda Nichol of near Durham, Gilvray MacLean of near Durham.

Miss Olive MacLean had her tonsile and adenoids removed in Toronto hospital recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ramage are spending a few days on the farm, with their son, Reggie.

The snow is nearly all gone and the roads are not very good. There is a bad washout on the townline at the bridge, which stopped the traffic which makes it very inconvenient to get to town, but we hope it will soon be fixed. The dam at the mill was also washed away. This means a lot of work and a big loss for Mr. Wright, and will take some time to replace it again.

Mr. McCormick made a business trip to Toronto on Wednesday last.

Mr. Hermie McLean of Toronto called on friends in the burg lately.

Miss Jessie Ferris spent last week end in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ferguson were recent visitors at Mr. F. McKinnon's.
