Injured By Truck

An item of interest appeared in a Toronto paper on Thursday, April 5, of interest to residents in this part, in which it was stated that Alex. Hogarth had been seriously injured. Alex. is the elder son ofMr. and Mrs. J. A. Hogarth of the west backline, Artemesia. The despatch stated:

"In an ingenious but ill-advised attempt to act at the same time as "engineer and brakeman." Alexander Hogarth of St. Catharines, aged 26 years was seriously injured on Wednesday evening of last week.

Hogarth, a driver employed by the Winters Cartage Company, 120 Front Street East, was in the Sterling Road yards of the Rowntree Cocoa Co. with his truck, while detached trailer stood near by, waiting to be hooked on.

After gauging the distance between the two vehicles, Hogarth stepped into the cab of the truck and set it slowly into reverse toward the trailer. He then jumped down and ran around to hook up the connection when the two should come together.

He had misjudged the direction, however, and when the truck and trailer bumped Hogarth was pinned between them and very badly crushed. He was released and taken to the Western Hospital, where it is feared that, in addition to broken ribs, he has sustained internal injuries".

Alex is improving nicely and it is not expected that any serious effects will result from the accident. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

WILD ..ANIMALS ..TRAPPED ..OR SHOT BELONG TO LAND OWNER.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Canada in the case of Eugene Rheaume, a French Canadian farmer living near Sudbury, appellant, has just decided that any wild animal trapped or shot on any person's property legally belongs to the property owner. Rheaume appealed against a recent conviction registered against him by Magistrate Arthurs of Sudbury, by which he was fined $20 and $20.85 costs on a charge of stealing a red fox which had been trapped on his property by a neighbor, Thos. Sullivan. The court held that being the owner of the land, Rheaume was entitled to the fox.

A UNIQUE BUSINESS.

There are many strange occupations and ways of making a living and, generally speaking, the stranger they are the more exclusive and difficult are they to find. A woman in a Surrey village, says the Daily Mail, keeps a colony of spiders which obligingly spin for her the threads which are used for the reticulation of lenses of microscopes, field glasses, and telescopes. These threads are so fine that even when magnified by the lens they do not interfere with the vision. The spider manufactures the thread in liquid form, which solidifies by contact with the air and is wound onto cards. For some exceedingly delicate instruments, even this thread is too coarse and with the aid of a microscope and a steady hand is split into four.

Chassis Demonstration of Chevrolet Motors

The chasis demonstration of the Bigger and Better Chevrolet was held in the former Chalmer's church on Saturday evening, by D. McTavish & Son, local dealers in the Chevrolet. Mr. E. E. Thompson, District Representative of the Chevrolet Motor Co., was in charge of the demonstration and was assisted by Mr. E. M. Bigger, mechanic of the same company, who explained in detail the new features of the Chevrolet to a large and interested audience. Motion pictures were also shown of the General Motors Proving Ground where the company tries out its products for speed tests and endurance. Mr. Bigger gave a clear explanation of the new car and its many special features and improvements including the longer wheelbase, roomier bodies the non-locking four wheel brakes speed, power, cooling system, steering gear, besides the many more safety devices designed to make the Chevrolet one of the leaders in the cheap car field.

The new Chevrolet has what might be termed a six wheel brake as you may work same on two wheel basis or a four, thus assuring the driver of the maximum of safety at all times. The car has 34.6 per cent. more power than last year.

A guessing contest was also held, Joe Gibson won an inner tube as first prize, Gordon Teeter an ornament for the radiator cap as second prize and Lorne Sharp a balloon tire gauge for third prize.

Won High Chair for the First April Baby

Findlay's high chair competition for the first baby born after April 1st has again been taken. This year the lucky parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Badgerow of Saugeen Junction, as a 10 pound baby boy was born to them on April 4. Dr. Lively of Flesherton was the doctor in attendance. Mr. Findlay nearly had the April fool on him as there were a pair of twins born in Portlaw section on the last day of March. A few hours later and he would have had two high chairs to put up.

Remember this is an annual event and open to anybody. The only stipulation is that the parents must be a customer of some store in Flesherton.

Miss Bernice Smith of Newmarket is the guest this week of Miss Elda Karstedt.

Mrs. Gerald Morgan and two children of Moorefield are spending this week with her parents, M. and Mrs. J. Lever.
