W.M.S. Meeting

The Easter thankoffering of the W. M. S. of the United church was held on April 5 in the school room of the church. Mrs. Cargo presiding.

The meeting was opened by singing hymn 184, after which the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. Thompson read scripture lesson followed by a period of silent prayer, Mrs. Armstrong offering the prayer, asking for blesing in our work at home and abroad. The Responsive program prepared by W. M. S. was then taken. Mrs. Tremp read greetings from Mrs. Staples, Presbyterial Pres. and a duet by Mrs. McCallum and Edna was then given. Mrs. Murray gave a talk on "Lessons we learn from the Resurreution." Elizabeth Bentham and Mrs. Blackburn gave a duet, followed by a reading from Mrs. Phillips and a poem by Mrs. Down. The offering was then taken, which amounted to $67.55. Hymn 225 was sung and the meeting was then closed by Mrs. Mitchell. Tea was served and a very interesting meeting was then brought to an end. Although the weather was unfavorable the meeting was largely attended.—Com.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Orville Martin of Owen Sound visited a few days in this vicinity.

Ivan Lockhart is through with his second term at Toronto Chiropractic School and has passed his examination. Congratulations.

Last week we were busy hunting up our Easter hats and summer coats, airing and storing our furs, but lo on Sunday it was necessary to appear in our winter garb, for the weather had taken a sudden chill.

Easter has brought the teachers and pupils who were away from home back for a few days.—Rosella Stevens, Stella and Sylvia Acheson.

Miss Greenwood, our teacher, is holidaying at her home in Durham.

Mrs. A. Stinson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Badgero, at Saugeen Junction for a couple of weeks.

Helen Badgero is spending her Easter holidays here.

Vera Moore is home for a few days.

Mrs. Louie Bannon and family are visiting at her father's, Dreamland.

A play entitled "Wanted, A Wife," will be given by the Berkley Dramatic Club in the former Chalmer's Church on Monday, April 16th. Admission 35 and 25 cents.

SPRINGTIME
— MEANS —
Housecleaning

No doubt when you start your house cleaning you will find a few articles of furniture need replacing or else it would make your home more comfortable to add some more new furniture to it. We feel we can serve you along this line in most everything in the furniture line, and should we not have anything good enough it is only a short motor over to the factory and we can show you a real display of anyhing you might want, and thereby selling direct from factory to buyer and cutting down the actual cost. So should you need anything along our line just let us know and Service, which is our motto, will do the rest.

Call up your customers by long distance

An occasional call will make it almost impossible for them to stop trading with you.

Do you realize that one of the largest returns you can secure from the expenditure of a small sum is to be had by calling up old customers occasionally by Long Distance?

Friendliness begets friendliness. How can you or I keep away from a merchant who spends his money to show his interest in our affairs? We can't.

The newspaper editor counts on this trait in human nature. He mentions subscribers' names frequently, because he knows they will look for them in his paper.

The merchant who occasionally calls customers by Long Distance is one who can't be overlooked or forgotten.

Osprey Resident Died in 81st Year

Death has again entered our neighborhood and taken from our midst another of the old pioneers of Osprey in the person of Mr. Philip Ottewell.

Mr. Ottewell, who was in his 81st year had always enjoyed robust health until last Tuesday when he complained of not feeling well. Dr. Gauld of Maxwell was called in and pronounced the trouble due to weak heart action.

Little hope was held for his recovery from the first and on Sunday night at 6 o'clock he passed peacefully away at the home of his son, James, on the 8th line of Osprey.

The deceased, who was a kind and cheerful disposition will be much missed by those who knew him.

He was born in England, in the year 1848, and with his parents, came to Canada at the age of five years, where in the year 1877 he was united in marriage to Sarah Jane Osborne and to them twelve children were born, eight of whom are living and are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, namely: (Jennie) Mrs. Edward Armstrong, Lockwood Sask., John, Sherman, and George of the 12th line of Osprey. (Alice) Mrs. Arthur White of Collingwood; Isaac on the old homestead, 10th line, Osprey; James on the 8th line Osprey; and (Carrie) Mrs. George Waller of Flesherton. Four brother and four sisters also survive, namely: John and James of the 12th line, Osprey Samuel of Feversham and Richard of Arcola, Sask. (Susan) Mrs. S. Colquette, and (Mary Ann) Mrs. A. McMullen of Toronto; (Charlotte) Mrs. George Thompson of the tenth line, Osprey and (Eliga) Mrs. Bullock, Collingwood township.

The floral tributes were beautiful, among which was a pillow from the family; spray from his sister, Mrs. Thompson; spray from Mrs. Colquette and daughters; spray from his niece, Mrs. Van Winkle and spray from Providence Ladies' Aid.

Rev. Mr. Dean conducted the funeral services, which was held in the Gospel Worker's church, Feversham. The remains were then conveyed to Bethel cemetery and laid to rest beside those of his wife, who predeceased him on February 8th, 1927.

Despite the poor condition of the roads, a large number of neighbors and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to one beloved by all who knew him.

The pallbearers were H. Moffatt, Geo. Lawlor, Fred Spoffard, George hSortt, John Poole and Fred Weldrick. His cares and troubles are now past
And he has found sweet rest at last
In that fair land that knows no pain
We hope to clasp his hand again.
