The Late R. J. Pedlar

EUGENIA

The people here were shocked to hear of the untimely death of Mr. R. J. Pedlar at the early age of 52 years Mr. Pedlar was suddenly seized by pneumoniaon Wednesday, April 25th, and was taken to Lindsey hospital, where he received good treatment but efforts were in vain to save his life from the fatal disease and death claimed him on Monday night.

Last fall, he, with his daughter moved to Oakwood to reside. For a number of years previous to this he was a steady employee at the Durham Furniture factory at Rock Mills. He was a great artisan in renovating cars, etc. and got much employment along that line.

The remains came up on the noon train to the home of his sister, Mrs. W. McKee, Flesherton, where a very comforting sermon was preached at 2 o'clock p.m. by the pastor of the United church, Rev. Jos. Harrower Interment took place in the Meaford Road cemetery, beside the remains of his wife, who predeceased him 26 years ago. His wife, whose maiden name was Miss Ida Wilson, was a daughter of the late Thompson Wilson and Mrs. Wilson of Flesherton.

The flowers from the friends were very pretty. The pall bearers were Messrs Donald McDonald, Leonard Latimer, Thos. Gilliland, Richard Park and son Russell and Levi Betts.

He leaves to mourn his loss his two daughters, Leone Mrs. Harry Tate of Hillsburg and Chriselda, Mrs. Dixon, now Mrs. Dan Fawcett, of Oakwood and 10 grandchildren, also two brothers and one sister—Geo. of Durham, William of Rock Mills and Selena, Mrs. McKee of Flesherton.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Henry Wiliams has suddenly taken ill again. We hope it is not critical.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tudor, on May 4th, 1928, the gift of a daughter.—Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Genoe and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Short, near Feversham, on Sunday. Their daughter, Miss Reta remained to visit with her aunt for a few days.

A number from this vicinity attended the funeral of the late R. J. Pedlar last week.

Mr. Chas. Williams is home from Toronto for a few days.

Miss Mae Carruthers is visiting at St. Thomas.

Mr. Ephriam Rowbotham of Toronto visited with his wife and family here over the week end.

The children had a fine time at school on Arbor Day. Some of them didn't think so when they returned to school on Monday. The boys took a hike off by themselves on Friday afternoon and when they returned on Monday some of them were treated to a taste of "blackstrap" while others were let off without a taste of it because they cried. Don't you think that this was unfair as they all did the same thing?

We are pleased to report Miss Muriel Cameron has recovered from her recent attack of appendicitis.

The U. F. W. O. Club met at the home of Mr. Lewis Genoe on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McMillan and daughter, Margaret spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. M. and little daughter remained for a visit with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gorley and daughter Viola and friend of Markdale spent Sunday with Mrs. Sloan.

Mrs. A. McLeod Died Suddenly in Toronto

CEYLON

This village and community was very greatly shocked and sadened when on Friday, May 4th about 4 p.m. Mrs. Roy Piper received a telephone mesage from Toronto that her mother, Mrs. Mary McLeod had dropped dead shortly after lunch hour, at the home of her daughter, Kate (Mrs. Herb Fisher) 13 Keystone Ave., where she had spent the winter months and had been feeling very well all winter, only a moment before she was speaking to her daughter who had just stepped outside the kitchen door and hearing a sound as though something had fallen she looked in to see her mother lying on the floor. A doctor was summoned in haste but all help was past. The death was due to heart failure. She was preparing to come to her home in Ceylon for a few days in the summer. The deceased was born in Burwick, County of Stormont in the year 1857, making her 71 years old. She came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson to Grey Co. near Priceville, and in the year 1877 was married to Angus McLeod, settling on a farm 2 and one-half miles west of Ceylon and now owned by Mr. B. McKenzie and to them were born 4 sons and 3 daughters, Roderick in Winnipeg, Alex in Kamloops, B. C. John in St. Catharines and Norman in Niagara Falls; Mrs. Roy Piper, (Bella) in Ceylon, Mrs. Herbie Fisher (Kate), Toronto, Mrs. L. A. Bean (Edna) of Red Creek, N. Y. Her husband predeceased her 20 years ago and three years later she purchased a residence in Ceylon and moved with her family. She was a very kind and large hearted neighbor, and her home was always open to the young folks, where many a jolly evening was spent in games and music On Saturday afternoon at 2.30 a short service was held before leaving with the body for Union Station, then up on the night train to Ceylon, where it was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs Roy Piper. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at 1.[illegible] service being conducted by Mr. Prosser, who gave a comforting message to the bereaved. The remains were laid in Priceville cemetery beside those of her husband. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her family one brother and three sisters, Mr. Hugh McPherson, Mrs. Rod. Stewart, (Annie), Mrs. D. Muir (Maggie) all of Ceylon and Mrs. Alex. Holley (Jessie) Sault Ste. Marie and 18 grandchildren. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes of sympathy from the following: Pillow from the family, and from Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cummings of Oshawa; wreaths from Ceylon Community friends, Mr. and Mrs. Buston of Toronto, Mrs. Brillinger and Anne of Toronto, The Jolly Dozen Girls, Red Creek, N. Y. sprays from Corner Class, Presbyterian church, Red Creek, N.Y., Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Sharp of Red Creek, Mr and Mrs. E. W. Haslem, Red Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Marshall, Toronto, Mrs. John Hill, Markdale, Mr. and Mrs. H. Piper, Mr and Mrs. L. Torrey of Lauriston

The flower bearers were ten girls Della and Laura White, Mabel Moore Mable Haw, Mable Adams, Nellie Genoe, Katie Stewart, Stella Marshall, Francis Collinson, Fern Leslie.

The pall bearers were Mr. S. Hemphill, Messrs. John and Sandy McFadden, Thos. Gilchrist, Geo. Arrowsmith and John Gibson.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, and son Frank of St. Catharines Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLeod and son. Billy of Niagara Falls. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bean and son, Jack of Red Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Fisher and two children of Toronto, Mr. J. B. Cummings, Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. S. McDonald, Donald McDonald and Miss Flora McDonald all of Mulock, Mr. and Mrs. L. Torrey of Lauriston, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hill of Markdale.

This community extends its deepest sympathy to the family and relatives in their sudden bereavement.

Miss Vera Marshall, nurse in training at the Durham hospital spent a couple of days the past week at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Banks motored to Palmerston on Monday evening and attended a Masonic meeting.

Mr. J. C. McMullen of Toronto visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen the past week.

Mrs. Cecil Archibald of Proton visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McWhinney on Friday.

Mr. A. C. Muir has purchased from agent R. McLean of Priceville a new Essex car.

We are sorry to report Mr. H. McPherson ill with pleuro pneumonia

Mr. Wm. Mathewson received the sad news on Thursday that his son-in-law, Mr. A. Menzies of Fenelon Falls, and who is an employee of the hydro there, had been suddenly electrocuted. No further particulars have been received. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss to whom much sympathy is expressed.

Mr. and Mrs. Royden Gibson of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. J. Gibson.

Mrs. Coleman and brother of Owen Sound motored down on Monday and visited the former's daughter Mrs. Frank Collinson.

Mr. Jas. Archer of Toronto visited with Mrs. W. White and family on Friday.

Mr. Arthur Whitaker of Toronto spent the week end with his brother here, and was accompanied back to the city on Monday by John McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods and family of Chatsworth visited the first of the week with Mr. F. Marshall.

Mr. Prosser went to Owen Sound and had charge of the evening service in West Side church Sunday evening.

Mrs. White visited friends at Saugeen the past week.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends and neighbors we wish to express our deep appreciation of the numerous acts of kindness and sympathy extended during the death of our mother, Mrs. Mary McLeod. —The Family.

WILL WIDEN BRIDGE AT WASAGA BEACH

The heavy traffic over the bridge at Wasaga Beach due to the increasing number of tourists has compelled the County Council to increase its width. The contract for widening is for the steel work of two four foot pedestrians' walks on either side of the bridge, and is to cost $1,195. It is expected that the steel work will be ready for the carpenters within six weeks.
