IN MEMORIAM

PEDLAR — In loving memory of our dear mother, Mattie Pedlar, who passed away on June 8, 1925.

She was such a dear good mother,
So patient, kind and true.
There never was a dark cloud,
But she saw the sunshine through.
Sometimes when we are all alone,
You seem to be so near.
That we hear your dear voice saying
Don't grieve dears, I,m here.
Though death can divide us from mother,
Nor sever the chords of love.
She is resting sweetly with Jesus,
In the beautiful home above.
—Sadly missed by the family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Mary Tupling, who passed away, June 1st, 1926.

In Feversham, softly sleeping,
Lies a cold and silent grave.
Where we laid our dear mother,
Just two years ago to-day.
She was such a dear good mother,
So patient, kind and true.
There was never a cloud so heavy and dark,
But she saw the sunshine through.
Oftimes when I think of mother,
She seems to be so near,
I hear her loving voice saying,
Do not grieve, dear one, I am near.
No death cannot divide me from mother
Nor sever the chords of love.
She is just resting sweetly with Jesus,
In that beautiful home above.
—Sadly missed by Pansy.

A QUICK DROP IN EGGS

There was quite a drop in eggs last week while J. Runstadler's truck was proceeding to Toronto with 1800 dozen eggs as a load. While proceeding on the Prince of Wales Highway, between Shelburne and Orangeville the brakes suddenly seized and swung the truck to the side of the road into the wet gass, and nothing could stop it from taking to the ditch. No damage resulted to the truck and the only loss was 62 dozen eggs lost when the load was brought home and the entire shipment of eggs was candeled. It was a fortunate escape from more seriuos loss or injury.
