Grandmothers Given a Reception at Singh'ton

The Women's Institute of Singhampton tendered the grandmothers of that community with a banquet on Thursday last, July 5th, the pleasant gathering being held on the lawn at the home of Reeve and Mrs. Taylor. The lawn was beautifully decorated with flowers, flags and red, white and blue bunting, particularly pretty being the arch over the gateway with the words: "We Welcome Our Grandmothers," in gold lettering. The first part of the afternoon was spent in social greetings, which, judging by the merry hum of voices, was enjoyed by all. Now and then a salutation was heard in Gaelic, which made one think of the words of the poet, "My heart is Scottish still."

A program of songs, speeches, etc., was given, with Reeve Taylor giving a short address of welcome to our dear grandmothers. All were delighted with the beautiful singing of Mrs. Will Robertson, her selections being very apropriate and very sweetly rendered. Another pleasant number was the old song. "My Grandmother's Old Arm Chair," sung by one of the grandmothers, Mrs. J. Lougheed, without accompaniment, for, as she humorously remarked, "that song was made before organs." A merry part of the program was the grandmothers' potato paring race, in which Mrs. Lydia Scott won the first race and Mrs. Zeggi the second. At the close of the program a roll call of the grandmothers was made, to be answered with the number of their grandchildren. Mrs. McInnis, having the largest number with 34, was presented with a silver bon bon dish. Mrs. Catharine McDonald, who has the honor of being the oldest grandmother, having attained the grand old age of 87 years, was presented with a pair of silver candle sticks and candles. The presentations were made by two tiny girls, Kathleen Hill and Lureen Sheard. Both those dear old ladies are great-grandmothers, Mrs. McDonald having 20 great-grandchildren and Mrs. McInnes 4. A prize was given for the best salad and Mrs. A. Stewart and Mrs. A. Buie awarded this prize to Mrs. Alex. Sheard.

The grandmothers were then seated at the beautifully decorated tables, heavily laden with good things to eat. The orchestra furnished music during supper time, and also in the evening.

Mrs. G. G. Ewing, the W. I. President, acted as toast mistress, and the toasts to Our King, Our Grandmothers, Our Country, Our Community and Our Institute, were responded to by different ladies. We were pleased to have with us our old friend, Mrs. J. Hewson, who had the honor of being the youngest grandmother present, and responded to the toast "Our Grandmothers" in her usual pleasing manner. Mrs. Bell of Duntroon, District Vice-President, whom we were also very pleased to have with us, replied to the toast of "Our Institute" in a very able manner. Mrs. M. Goldsmith gave a very fine speech in reply to the toast to "Our Community."

After supper was served to over 150 people, the grandmas and grandpas were requested to form on the lawn for an old-fashioned square dance, which they did and which caused much laughter and repeated cheering. After spending a short time in dancing, the meeting closed with the National Anthem, and all reported this one the most enjoyable gatherings ever held here.—Com.

WAR ON WEEDS

Minister of Agriculture Paying Special Attention to Highways

Hon. John S. Martin, minister of Agriculture, is writing all Ontario municipalities to call their attention to the new amendments to the Noxious Weeds Act which was passed last legislature, and to ask of them all possible cooperation in reducing the weed menace to a minimum. Referring to the matter of cutting on highways, Mr. Martin writes as follows: "As you will see, the act requires that this be done by the road authorities as defined under the Highway Improvement Act. This simpy means that the authority which is responsible for the maintenance of the road shall be responsible for the cutting of the weeds on the road. The cost of cutting the weeds to be considered as part of the road maintenance, and may be included on the portion on which the Government pays a grant under the Highways Improvement Act. This appears to be the most simple and inexpensive manner in which this very important work can be done, and I trust it will have the hearty support of all municipalities. You will observe that the Government grant for road maintenance may be withheld where the weeds are not properly cut." Mr. Martin expresses the hope that municipalities which did not appoint weed inspectors last year will do so this year. Early in the summer the department proposes to call a conference of these inspectors with a view to familiarizing them with another's work, and with conditions generally throughout the province.

THE CULPRIT CONFESSED

After being interviewed by Chief Oliver and Provincial Officer Purvis last week, William Lovelock of King Street signed a written confession acknowledging his guilt in setting fire to Mr. Hawkin's barn. The acknowledgment was made before the Mayor who remanded him for one week for trial. Great surprise was expressed by the towns people as he was always regarded as a quiet, inoffending person. It is alleged that he had been dismissed by Mr. Hawkin's from his service, and possibly brooded over it unduly. The date of the trial has not been definitely fixed so far.—Stayner Sun.

CLARKSBURG GARAGE MAN PAYS HEAVY FINE

A Provincial Officer raided the garage of Carrol Walker on Saturday night last and found a quantity of beer and as a consequence Walker faced two charges under the L. C. A. at the Police Court, Thornbury, yesterday afternoon before P. M. Hogg. The first charge of keeping liquor for sale was dismissed Walker pleaded guilty to having liquor in an illegal place and the magistrate imposed a fine of $300 and costs, in all $337.50, which was paid. Walker's permit was cancelled and the beer confiscated.—Collingwood Enterprise.

THE GROUND UP

A man, playing a round of golf, drove off with a mighty swipe. Something soared into the air. It was not the ball, however, but a big clod of earth and grass. "Extraordinary!" grunted the player.

"Yes, sir," remarked the caddy. "It does seem a bit out of the common."
