SHORT—KIRK

A lovely Muskoka wedding was that which was solemnized at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirk, Bracebridge, at high noon on Thursday, July nineteenth, when their elder daughter, Annie Helena Mary and Samuel Davidson Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Short, Feversham were united in the Holy Bonds of matrimony. The touching ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Hamilton B. Jackson of Proton Station in the presence of about fifty-five relatives and friends, took place in the bower of the Muskoka Pines with white streamers and a large wedding bell hanging from above and bowles of pink roses at the foot.

The sweet bride who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in white flat crepe with shoes and stockings to match, and wearing a sprig of white sweet peas in her dark tresses. She carried a bouqet of white carnations, pink and mauve sweet peas and baby's breath.

The wedding march "Here Comes the Bride," was sweetly played by Miss Gertrude Irish of Proton.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served on the lawn, the long tables being dotted with small bowls of pansies and centred with the bride's cake. Other decorations throughout the house were blue and white streamers, pink roses and ferns.

Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Gaudin and Miss Lotus Ennis, Toronto; Mr and Mrs. Jos. Ennis and family, Regina; Miss Emma Ennis of India; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hewgill, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dinsmore, Mrs Earl Hewgill and baby, Franklyn, Mr. Washington Dinsmore and Miss Caroline Dinsmore, Thornbury: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Short and Mr. Jno. ROD AND GUN

The August issue of Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News, which is just published, contains a highly interesting collection of yarns and stories of outdoor Canada and hunting and fishing. In the list there is a very good story of a more unusual humorous type in "So this is Moose Hunting" by John Richmond. The contents also include several articles of a conservational note, as well as useful ifnromation fos hunters, fishermen and campers.

The Guns and Ammunition department, edited by C. S. Landis, includes much useful material for the gun crank while anglers, outdoorsmen, campers and dogmen are well catered to in the special departments edited by well known authorities. The Canadian Silver Fox News section contains a very complete report of the annual meeting of the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

IN MEMORIAM

BLACKBURN—In loving memory of Mrs. John Blackburn, who passed away, July 24, 1926.

Forget her, no we never will,
For in God's care she liveth still,
A loving mother, true and kind
No friend on earth like her we'll find,
For all of us she did her best
And God gave her eternal rest

—Sadly missed by husband and farily.

Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing ones.

CROSKIN—CUSHNIE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, July 21st at the home of the bride's parents, 12 Thornhill Ave., Toronto when Gladys Mildred, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J W. Cushnie was united in marriage by Rev. Dr. A. P. Addison to William Henry Crosken, son of Mr. Wm. Crosken and the late Mrs. Crosken of Toronto under a canopy of white streamers and bells banked with pink and white carnations and ferns. The bride, who was given away by her father entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding march played by her aunt, Miss M. Cook of Ceylon and looked charming in a simple frock of white flate crepe with flounce skirt of silk lace with shoulder and corsage flowers of white roses, edged with silver, hat and shoes to match. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet heart roses and baby breath, her only attendant was Miss Maud Crosken, sister of the groom, who wore a poudre blue georgette dress and hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and baby breath. The groom was supported by his friend, Mr. Sidney Allard. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty buffet lunch was served from the dining room, which was prettily decorated with white bells, pink and white roses, the table being centered with a beautiful four-storey cake, tulle and trailings of myrtle. Mrs. Page poured tea and was assisted by the bride's cousins. Rev. Dr. Addison proposed a toast to the bride, bridesmaid and bride's parents, which was responded to with well chosen words.

The groom's gift to the bride was a silver necklace with torhuois pendant; to the brides maid, a ring; groom man, cuff links, and the organist an umbrella.

Latter the happy couple left amid a shower of confetti and good wishes for a motor trip to Montreal and other points. The bride's travelling dress was of blue crepe de chine with lemon crush straw hat and coat. The bride is very popular and received many beautiful and useful gifts.
