THE FIGHT OVER THE BORDER

Govenor Smith of New York State, in his address of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, takes a firm stand in favor of the amendament of the constitution of the United States, that which provides the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors. Mr. Smith asserts that he favors the option of a State system of liquor control as we now have in Ontario, the change only to be made by Congress after a reforndum in the State affected. He is, he declares unalterably opposed to the re-establishment of the saloon. Further, he declares that these are only his personal views and that any changes in the law on the Statute book can only be made by Congress and until such time as amendment of the law is so resolved on, it will be his duty to enforce it to the full. He claims that the Republican party has not so enforced the law hence its dispute.

Our opinion is that prohibition will remain with our neighors, no matter which of the parties triumph at the polls next November.

The people of the United States have never yet repealed an article after it has been added to the Constitution. The 18th amendament was adopted after a majority of the States had voted to adopt it. The Senate and House of Representatives have again and again, by every large majority refused to interfere with its operation, and while there is considerable trouble with the enforcement, it is maintained by those best felled to pronounce the matter that moral society and industrial institutions have been greatly in favor since the national vestitation of the traffic in intoxicants was decreed.

Nevertheless the puzzle between the two great parties over the border bcomes intensely interesting as the turmoil of the election in fervor.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Meaford folks are stuck up because for the first time an airplane flew into "their midst" last week. Now they want an aerodome.

• • •

The latest story from the swamp on the highway west of Markdale is that a supporter of the whiskey freedom saw a bear climb a tree. Wonder if he did not see two?

• • •

Judging a recent experience, women, who marry eccentric men take considerable risk. For that matter, a man is not free from probable trouble, if he hitches up with a woman of the same type.

Grey County has a fine agricultural exhibit at Toronto Fair, got together by Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, Agricultural Representative. We should make a try to have this exhibit for the East Grey Fair at Flesherton this month.

• • •

The crops in this part of the Province have been so far harvested as to enable us to say that the yield will be above the average. Let us all trust that the price will be satisfactory. "The laborer is worthy of his hire."

• • •

Autoists are complaining of the tar on roads between Flesherton and Toronto and between Owen Sound and Meaford. They say their cars were splashed over by the composition recently put down, and suggest that detours be established till the sticky stuff dries up.

• • •

Hydro Electric customers in various places have been notified that a reduction of one-sixth of their bills would be taken off this year. Welcome news to the fortunate ones. The customary notification in these parts has been that an increase must be whacked up. Surely a reduction should come our way too.

IN MEMORIAM

SLOAN—In loving memory of our dear son, Jacob Arnold Sloan, who departed from this life, September 5th, 1927.

One year has passed since that sad day
God called the one we loved away
Dear son you are not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Three little words, forget-me-not,
They don't seem much, but mean a lot,
Just a memory fond and true,
To show dear son we think of yau.

Ever remembered by Father, Mother and Family.

NOTE OF CORRECTION

Duncan, Ont., Aug. 23, 1928.

Mr. Thurston,
Editor of Advance.

Dear Sir:-

It has just been drawn to my attention that in Maxwell News, on or shortly after July 4th, it was stated that the Shrigley team won from the Duncan Orioles on July 2nd. This statement was not true and in fairness to the Oriole Softball team I would ask you to rectify the mistake in your next issue. The Orioles won the game, the score being 6-8. Thanking you, I am,

Yours respectfully, Captain of the Orioles.
