PORTLAW

The funeral of the late Mrs. McPhail of Winnipeg took place on Friday last from the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, here, interment taking place in McIntyre Cemetery. Service was held at the house and church and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Mills, assisted by Mr. D. Kendall.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre, pioneers of the McIntyre settlement, Osprey township. There she was born and grew to young womanhood. She married her now sorrowing husband, Mr. Laughlan Lamont McPhail. To them were born eight of a family, one dying in infancy. The surviving members of the family are Malcolm, John W., Katharine, Isabelle, Laughlin L. and Elizabeth Victoria, all of Winnipeg. The brothers are Alexander of Weston, Oregon; John D. of Spokane, Washington; Hector of Barrows, Alberta and Neil of McIntyre. The sisters are Mrs. H. B. Kirkland of Cranbrook, B. C. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson of Port Law. Six grandchildren also reside in Winnipeg. Her daughter, Miss Isabell and sons John W. and Laughlan L., also her brother, John D. of Spokane and sister, Mrs. Kirkland of Cranbrook, B. C. accompanied the remains and attended the funeral. Deceased entered the General Hospital, Winnipeg on July 23rd and after much suffering passed away on August 21st. Before starting east a short service was conducted for the immediate relatives and members of the family by Rev. J. P. Williamson. Mrs. McPhail was a faithful member and ardent worker in the Presbyterian Church.

Floral tributes were presented by Nassau Baptist Church, General Motors, Allan Killin and McKay Ltd. The family, Brothers and Sisters, also Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Fisher, Mount Zion Sunday School, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. Meldrum.

The family lived for many years in Kenora, but for the past ten years their home has been 218 Mayfair Ave., Fort Rouge, Winnipeg.

Mrs. J. H. Watson is on an extended visit with her father, Mr. Edward Ross, who resides near Sault Ste Marie.

Lloyd, Evelyn and Joe Little and John Osborne visited with friends in Toronto recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Erwin of Toronto spent the past week with Mrs. Erwin's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Little Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne visited with the former's brother, Mr. Sam Osborne of Williamsford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Erwin, Mrs. G. Little Sr. and Mrs. Gilbert Little visited with friends at Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaudin and Miss Alice Little of Toronto visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Little.

In our last week's items the printer made it appear that Mrs. Spurgeon has been re-roofing the house. This is not strictly in accordance with facts. It was Spurgeon himself who was up on the roof. When Mrs. McNevin arrives she will likely feel more at home attending to interior decoration.

The Late Irene McLean

The messenger of death has come into our community and taken to her reward, Irene Euphemia McLean, daughter of Hector and the late Mary A. McLean, after a long illness, with much suffering. She passed away Saturday evening, August 25th. She was of a genial disposition, and loved by all who knew her. She is no more, for her Lord has taken her; she bore her illness with Christian fortitude. From a child she had deep interest in the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, becoming a member of His Church at an early age.

The funeral was one of the largest in this district for a long time, and was held on Tuesday, the 28th of August in the McKinnon Hall by her pastor, Rev. J. Corry, who preached a comforting sermon and helpful. The sermon was based on 11 Cor. 1. The hall was filled to its utmost, which showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pall bearers were six young ladies, her former companions, Mrs. D. L. McArthur, Mrs. Earl McLeod, Misses Mary Carson, Mary McKinnon, Annie Shortreed, Gladys Hincks and the remains were followed by six flower bearers, who carried the many floral tributes, Misses Jessie Nichol, Rebecca Nichol, Alice Reiley, Sadie Carson, Erma McLean and all were dressed in white. She leaves to mourn her loss, a loving father, two brothers, Gordon of Saskatchewan and Gilroy of Durham; and a sister, Jean, who is at home.

Sent here for but awhile
God marked her when he gave her birth,
And took her with a smile.

The hymns sung were "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Lead Kindly Light" and the choir, all dressed in black, sang an anthem, "Nearer, Still Nearer."

The effecient funeral director, Mr. Colin McMillan of Holstein had his lowering device with its green cresh rugs covering the forbidden aspect of the yawning grave. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the mourning relatives in in their sorrow .

The floral tributes were as follows Spray from Mrs. Ramsdell, New York, from her brother, Gordon of Saskatchewan, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLean, Dorothy and Eva Carson, Marjorie McLean of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Colin H. McLean and family, Priceville, Mr. and Mrs. Colin McMillan and Alex, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hooper, Holstein, Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar McKinnon and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ramage, Miss Mary Stewart, Mrs. McLean, Durham; wreath from the neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McLean and family; basket from Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCrae, Bridgeburg,, bouquet from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reilly; Gates Ajar from the Willing Helpers and the Sunday School.
