MAXWELL

We are glad to report Mrs. Wilbert Poole, who underwent an operation in the Toronto General Hospital, improving nicely.

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. D. Winters on Tuesday last.

The Gradmother's Day, under the auspices of the Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. Chas. Long was a splendid success. In spite of the disagreeable weather quite a number were present. The program consisted of an address of welcome by the President, Mrs. Fred Barber, and readings by Mrs. Geo. Ross, Mrs. W. H. Hall, Mrs. Geo. Lawlor and Miss Mary Ross. The prizes were won by the following:- Oldest grandmother Mrs. D. Long; Mrs. E. McCallum, who was only a few months younger was the recipient of a large bouquet of gladioli. Grandmother with the most grandchildren, Mrs. G. Conn. She has 3 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Youngest grandmother, Mrs. Chas. Long. Grandmother with the best salad, Mrs. Geo. Ross. Grandmother with the shortest skirt, Mrs. Geo. Lawlor. Community singing was led by Mrs. Geo. Lawlor and Mrs. R. J. Morrison with Mrs. H. B. Poole as organist. Mrs. Olivia Ross won the prize for the grandmother being the longest member of the Institute. Lunch was served by the younger members of the Institute and an enjoyable social hour was spent.

The death occurred here on Friday last of Mr. John Stewart, an aged resident. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The service being held in the United Church. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buckingham and daughters, Shirley and Merle attended the golden wedding of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Buckingham at Stayner, on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham were former residents of this community. We give them our heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. Chas. Heron has returned from Buffalo.

The Maxwell Softball League held a corn roast at the home of Mr. A. Pallister on Friday last.

Local Fair Judges

The Fall Fairs are now commencing in real earnest and the local government judges have received their appointments. Mr. Allie Muir of Ceylon will judge cattle and sheep at the fairs at Parry Sound, Powassan, Sprucedale and Orville and T. Findlay of town takes the horses at Shelburne and Fordwich fairs. Both these judges are liable to be called to fill other fair dates.

Look up a horse and get in the potato race; you will enjoy it even if you do not win.

Have you asked anybody to go for a ride in the airplane yet? Accomodation for two, with the same pilot.

COURT OF REVISION

Notice is hereby given that a Court will be held, pursuant to The Ontario Voters' Lists Act, by His Honor the Judge of the County of the Grey at the Council Chamber, Maxwell, on the 3rd day of October, 1928 at 2 o'clock to hear and determine complaints of errors and omissions in the Voters' List of the Municipality of the Township of Osprey, for 1928.

Dated the 14th day of September, 1928. —H. G. BURKE, CLERK.

Made Many Friends

Speaking of the move of Mr. T. W. Henry, son of Mr. Thos. Henry of Flesherton, to the Bank of Commerce agency at Dundalk, the Wroxeter News says:-

Mr. T. W. Henry, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the past five years, leaves this week for Dundalk to assume the management of the branch at that place. Mr. Henry took over the management here under difficult circumstances, but succeeded in adjusting the affairs satisfactorily, and has since extended the bank's business yearly and his promotion was past due. Mr. and Mrs. Henry made many friends through acts of kindness in case of sickness and obliging elderly people who were unable to get to the bank to attend to their affairs. Dundalk is fortunate in getting them for citizens.

ROCK MILLS

Mr. Alex. English spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Quite a number from around here attended the meetings of the Gospel Workers at Clarksburg on Sunday.

We are glad to report Mr. Cecil Monaghan improving nicely.

Rev. H. B. Jackson of Proton preached at Salem church on Sunday evening and delivered a fine message from James 3rd chapt.

We are very pleased to know that Mrs. Geo. Hargrave's condition is a little improved and we sincerely hope she may continue to gain strength.

Mrs. Boyce is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Alex. English for awhile.

A mistake occurred in these items last week, which should have read Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Phillips and two children of Hamilton were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark and family.

A goodly number from here attended the school fair at Flesherton on Saturday.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Cook of Toronto visited at Walter Acheson's over the week end.

No service at Inistoge on Sunday on account of the anniversary services at Bethel.

The School Fair on Saturday at Flesherton was attended by most of the pupils and parents of No. 4.

Frequent rains keep the farmers, who are not quite done with the harvest, from getting the grain all in the barn safely.

Emma Moore was home for a couple of days accompanied by her friend, Miss Ethel Thompson.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON—In loving memory of my dear father, the late Jno. Kernaghan Jamieson, who departed this life, September 19th, 1926.

I know the home o'er the river
Across on the bright golden shore,
I will meet my dear father I grieve for
More loving than ever before.
For I know he has met my dear mother,
In that beautiful land so fair
And Heaven is nearer and dearer
For Father and Mother are there.

—Daughter, Mary.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Mr. David McMullen, who entered into rest, September 19th, 1927.

No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that is born in silence
For the one we loved so well.
In our hearts his memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear father
That we do not think of you.

—Sadly missed by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON—In loving memory of our dear father, John Kernaghan Jamieson, who departed this life, September 19th, 1926.

Two years have gone, you have not died,
Dear father, you have but passed
From out this dusty road, which we call life,
Into his garden there to find at last,
Peace, cool and sweet, from noise and dust and strife.

Daughters, Grace and Kate.

Don't forget to attend the concert on Fall Fair night, A real good program is assured, as the Laird concert troupe, consisting of eight people are putting on the program.
