Mrs. A. Hoy Layed To Rest Thursday

EUGENIA

A deep gloom was cast over the vicinity when the news spread that Mrs. Alex. Hoy had passed away to her Eternal Home on Monday night, October 8th, in the Toronto General Hospital, where she had been admitted only a few days previous to receive treatment. For a number of years Mrs. Hoy had been subject to asthma, but it was only a month or so ago that dropsy set in. She was under the doctor's care at her home before entering the hospital. She bore her sufferings with great fortitude. Her actions and her sayings at times led us to believe that she knew her time on earth was limited, yet she little complained. On Saturday, October 6th, Mr. Hoy was called to Toronto owing to Mrs. Hoy's serious condition. On Monday evening Mr. Hoy was informed by the hospital doctors that he could return home for three or four days, that his wife seemed somewhat better. By the time he arrived, he received the sad message that his wife had passed away. He immediately returned again to Toronto by motor. The remains were brought up on Tuesday evening and were taken to her late residence.

The late Mrs. Hoy, whose maiden name was Miss Ethel Mildred Parliament, eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Parliament, was 42 years of age. She was very industrious, at times her ambition was beyond her strength.

Service was held in the United Church, where the remains were taken on Thursday afternoon. Her pastor, Rev. Jos. Harrower officiated at the church and grave, preaching a very comforting sermon. The choir sang the beautiful sacred hymns "Asleep in Jesus" and "Rock of Ages." Interment took place beside her mother in Mount Zion Cemetery.

The floral tributes, which were numerous and lovely, showing respect and love for the deceased were Wreath from husband and daughter, wreath from her four sisters, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Phillips and family, wreath from employees of Thomson and Norris, Toronto. wreath from Eugenia friends and neighbors. A sheaf from the three aunts in Buffalo. Sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Will Code and family of Toronto, her aunt, Mrs. J. Blakey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoy, Mrs. Smith and little son, Bert, Mrs. D. Weber and Mrs. Arnold Lawrence, Kimberley. The flower bearers were Cecil, Earl, Florence and Stella Tuohy Clinton, Stanley and Fern Magee and Bertie Smith. The pall bearers Messrs Garnet Magee, Emerson Simmons, Lawrence Lyons and Angus Tuohy (4 brothers-in-law) Messrs Thos. Childs and Robt. Blakey.

Friends from a distance were her three aunts, Mrs. Leechbury, Mrs. Lebert and Mrs. David, and her nephew Harold Tuohy form Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. E. Simmons of Drayton, Mr. Chas. Hoy of Toronto, Mrs. Blakey and son Robt. of Wareham and the Tuohy family of Meaford.

Besides her sorrowing husband and daughter, Miss Mabel, she leaves in sad bereavement, Sarah (Mrs. A. sad bereavement, four sisters, Sarah (Mrs. A. Tuohy) of Meaford, Mae (Mrs. E. Simmons) of Drayton, Myrtle (Mrs. G. Magee) 8th line Florence (Mrs. L. Lyons) centre line, Osprey. Two brothers, Earl and Stanley, sacrificed their lives in the Great World War.

One by one earth's ties are broken,
One by one they are linked above
Some day there will be sweet reunion
Once again with those we love.

Our profound sympathy is extended to those left in sad bereavement.

Miss Irene Ring of McIntyre and Miss Irva Magee of Eugenia spent the week end at Mr. David Hincks.

In preaching on behalf of the W. M. S., Rev. F. Sullivan spoke not so much on missions, as upon the influence of women in all ages, in biblical times as in modern times. Their power for good and assistance they have given to their husbands and their sons, with their acquisition of the franchise greater power will be given to combat all evil to their credit, be it said, as announced at the evening service he preached on 11 Com., a new Com. "I give unto you that you love one another." A strong stirring exposition, showing the need of greater unity in spiritual things, citing the foolishness of so called Christain Nations engaging in the Great War against each other, and many other forceful examples quoted.

Workmen were busy last week putting in the new front in the hall, under the superintendency of Chas. Watson a master carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus McVicar spent a few days in Toronto.

Mr. John Nichol has purchased a new Chev. coach.

PUT YOUR THOUGHT INTO IT

Whatever your work, do not try to get out of thinking. It is true that some work can be dispatched with very little thought, but when done in this fashion, it helps to turn us into automatons, whereas if done with thought, it is educational. The worker who uses only his hands, never gets far up the ladder. Many a one who started as a manual worker, however, but who made his brains go into partnership with his hands, is now a prominent figure among those who count. One of the secrets of success is do all the thinking possible instead of talking the more popular way of getting along with as little as possible.

Mr. Burton Carruthers left by motor on Monday for Sault Ste. Marie, after spending the past month at his parental home.

Mrs. Mather of Lodon, England, is visiting at the home of Robt. Purvis.
