PROTON RESIDENT IN COURT ON FORGERY CHARGE

A forgery charge of much interest against Allen Francis, of Proton, was heard by Police Magistrate Creasor, of Owen Sound, in Dundalk, town hall on Tuesday. The case arises in connection with promissory notes, a portion of proceeds of an auction sale held in April, 1927, by the late Angus McQuarrie, of Con 6, Proton.

The main evidence was given by Mr. A. M. Carthew, of Cayuga, former manager of the Bank of Commerce here. Some of the said notes were negotiated by Mr. Francis with Mr. Carthew and other similiar notes were held for collection by the Bank acting for Mr. McQuarrie. An expert on handwriting from Toronto also gave evidence.

The magistrate passed the case on, to be heard at Owen Sound probably at the Fall Assizes, which opens on Nov 6. The accused is out on bail.

County Crown Attorney prosecuted. Prov. Const. Denton, who has been working on the case, was also there. —Dundlak Herald.
