We are glad to report Mrs Roy McNalty improving after her recent operation for appendicitis in the Collingwood hospital.

Mr. Caryle MacMillan arrived home from the west, looking hale and hearty.

Mrs. Bob Watson and Miss Bidie Earnshaw are visitors at Mr. Robt. Watson's.

Some from here took in the Anniversary Services at St. Columba Church on Sunday at Priceville.

Priceville

Last Sunday there was a splendid Service preached in the Hall by Rev. Mr. Corry. Surely we have a great many things to be thankful for. We have all had some drawbacks, but still throughout the year our blessings have been greater than our worries, so let us all be thankful.

The weather is very wet and disagreeable this Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tucker, Ebenezer, spent Sunday at Mr. Allie McLean's.

Miss Rebecca Nichol, Esther McInnis, Nellie McLean, Dorothy and Mary Carson, Sadie McKinnon, Marjorie McLean and Innis McLean, all of Toronto were home over the holiday.

IN MEMORIAM

SHARP—In loving memory of our dear parents, who departed this life, November 5, 1919 and November 18, respectively. Gone, but not forgotten. —Sadly missed by their family.

PORTLAW

(Last Week's Items)

Miss Elizabeth McLennan met with a very unfortunate accident on Wednesday of last week. While coming down stairs in their barn she missed her footing and fell to the basement floor, breaking one of her legs near the ankle. As she was alone it was some time before she was able to attract attention of her sister, Mrs. McMullen, who lives across the road. Dr. Gauld set the fractured limb and she is doing as well as might be expected at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jas. McLennan.

Mount Zion Harvest Home supper turned out to be quite successful on Monday evening of last week, despite the weeping weather. Abundance of good eats laded the long tables. No one seemed inclined to go on a hunger strike and when all were satisfied heaps of tempting viands still remained. Portlaw Daramatic Club rendered their play "Stung," but no one was badlly stung after all. The play, which furnished most of the program, was well given. Patton Brothers' orchestra was generous in supplying good music.

Hollowe'en was celebrated by the younger folk indulging in various pranks, most of which created mirth for young and old. The older set took another way that night of commemorating the event by meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Black, who have since moved to Orangeville, and presenting them with a bag of lucre and an address, expressing the good wishes of their neighbors and friends, to which Mr. Black replied in an appreciative way, on behalf of himself, his wife and family. It is needless to say the Hallowe'en prank was enjoyed by all participants.

Wellington Graham Passed Away Friday After Lingering Illness

EUGENIA CORRESPONDENCE

After a prolonged illness for a number of years and a hard struggle with influenza during the past week or so, death came at last on Friday forenoon, as a relief to the sufferer, Mr. George Wellington Graham, son of Mr. Geo. Graham and the late Mrs. Graham of this place.

He was born in Kimberley 51 years ago. He was well educated, having passed his examinations for civil engineer with honors. Owing to his ill health he never practised his profession. During a number of years previous to his death he indulged in carving some beautiful articles on picture frames, fancy boxes, etc., and also did fine inlaid work in trays. Much of his work has been purchased by tourists as "souvenirs of Eugenia." He was of a jovial disposition and was a good neighbor and friend. He bore his suffering with great fortitude and was tenderly cared for by his devoted wife, who, at all times, patiently waited upon him.

Thirteen years ago he was married to Miss Evalena Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith, who, with one daughter, Phyllis, are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. He also leaves in sad bereavement his father, five brothers, Ed., Bert, Edgar, Card and Fred, and two sisters, Jean and Ruby (Mrs. Thos. Huggard).

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon (Thanksgiving Day) Nov. 12th. The remains were taken to the United Church, where Rev. Jos. Harrower preached a very comforting sermon. Interment took place in Flesherton Cemetery, where Rev. Harrower also officiated.

The pallbearers were his five brothers and his brother-in-law, Mr. Thos. Hoggard.

The beautiful flowers, showing love and respect, were namely:—Pillow, from wife and daughter; Gates Ajar, brothers and sisters; Sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morgan and family; Miss Georgina Smith; Messrs Will and Dave Weber and family.

The flower bearers were: Patricia Morgan Loreen and Vilda Graham, Victor Graham, Odessa and Kenneth Hoggard.

Friends from a distance were: Mr. Edgar Graham of New York; Bert Graham and son, Frank, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and daughters of Walkerton; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Graham and family of Thornbury; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hoggard and family of Clarksburg; Miss Jean Graham of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. E. J. Ellis and daughter, Bessie, of Orangeville; Mr. Jas. Armstrong and the Misses Armstrong of Orangeville; Miss Georgina Smith and Mrs. Foy Marshall of Toronto.

We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing friends in their sad hour.

He suffered patiently and long,
His hope was bright, his faith was strong;
The peace of Jesus filled his breast,
And in His arms he sank to rest."

Mrs. Jacob Williams has returned home from a visit to the City.

Mr. Frank Bowerman of Toronto visited with his sister, Mrs. M. McMullen. Her daughter, Miss Millie, was also home from Toronto over the holiday.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Mae Carruthers is laid up with an attack of tonsilitis. We hope she is soon well again.

Miss Viola Williams and friend of Toronto visited her sister, Mrs. E. Partridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pipher and Mr. Wesley Cooey of Toronto visited at the Eugenia House over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hawken of Flesherton visited Postmaster R. A. Park and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quesnel and family of Owen Sound spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Jos. Sherwood. Miss Selena McDonald returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams moved their household effects to Toronto on Monday and will take up residence there again. We wish them every success.

Miss Sylvia Achesn visited at her parental home at Victoria Corners over the holiday.

A dance was held at the home of Mr. Jos. Williams on Thursday evening last, prior to their departure for Toronto.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Thos. Genoe is improving a little in health. We wish for a more speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purvis, accompanied by their son, Mr. Elwood Purvis and wife of Collingwood attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Jas. Purvis in Toronto last week. Their granddaughter, Miss Shirley Purvis, of Toronto returned home with them for a little visit.

Mr. Sam McDonald of Victoria Corners visited over the holiday at his home, 8th line.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis and family spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins of Toronto visited recently at Mr. E. Morgan's.

The hunters have gone on their annual hunting expedition. Those who have gone from our village are: Messrs. P. Munshaw, Ernie Morgan and Ernie Proctor. We wish them success. Mr. Morgan returned home Saturday, owing to the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Well. Graham.

Messrs. Jas. Russell and Chas. Williams have returned from a trip to Michigan.

EAST MOUNTAIN
