(Last Week's Items)

We notice an item in the last issue of The Advance where Stanley Conron, aged 10 years, was presented with a bronze medal by the Royal Canadian Humane Society, the youngest lad to be so recognized by the Humane Society. His father, we believe Sergeant Geo. Conron is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Conron of this place.

Mr. Harry Field of Toronto spent the week end with his parents here. Mr. C. M. Field is still on the sick list.

Miss Mary Carson of Toronto spent the week end at the home of Mr. J. A. Kernahan.

The L. O. B. A. held a play in the hall here on Friday night. The play by local talent, entitled "Getting Acquainted with Madge" was well given. The Maple Grove orchestra rendered music between acts and for the dance following the play.

Miss Mary Ross has returned home after spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. Milton Nicholls at Dundalk.

Mr. D. Kendall again took charge of the services here on Sunday after being confined to his bed with a severe cold for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. McKay and little son, and Miss Mary Rae, of New York, have returned home after an extended visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rae.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. S. Smart, who happened with a nasty accident on Wednesday, when he cut his hand with a buzz saw while cutting wood. The wound required about ten stitches.

Mrs. S. Dobson and children, of Feversham, spent a few days with Mrs. Clarence Smart.

Mr. Gordon McMullen spent a few days at the Royal Winter Fair.

Mr. Elwood Smart of Duncan spent the week end with his uncle, Mr. S. Smart.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our friends in Flesherton for their great kindnesses and sympathy in our recent bereavement. For these we feel that we can scrcely thank the people sufficietly for their many thoughtful acts and kind sympathy.

—W. J. Meads and Family.

It is no good hiding your light under a bushel if you want to sell gas fittings or electric shades and globes.

PRICEVILLE

Miss Gladys and Mr. Alf. Hincks spent Sunday with their uncle, Mr. Archie McQuaig.

Mr. Murray Nichol has arrived home from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hincks spent Sunday at the latter's parental home in Proton.

Rev. Mr. Corry preached in Shelburne on Sunday and a student, Mr. Young, from Knox College, Toronto, preached in the Hall. Mr. Horncastle sang a solo at the morning service which was much appreciated by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornicastle and Mrs. Hudson, of Hamilton, motored up and spent the week end with Mr. Angus McLachlan.

The Fowl Supper and Entertainment in the hall on Monday night was a decided success. There was a disappointment at first, owing to the previous engagement with Dr. Inkster of Toronto, that he could not come. Rev. Mr. Strachan of Owen Sound was secured, but failed to put in an appearance through some mishap on the road. The Clark family also had left, but was hung up on the road. There was a considerable lot of snow and made it hard for cars to travel, however an orchestra composed of Bradey Irwin, Harry Pedlar, Colin McLean, on violins and guitar, with Miss E. M. McCuaig and D. L. McArthur alternating at the piano, responded graciously to encores. Mrs. A. L. Hincks, Wm. McKenzie, Rev. Corry and Annabelle McArthur gave recitations, Mary Proudly and Mrs. D. McArthur readings. Vocal selections were given by Mr. Thos. Nichol Mrs. Proudly and daughter Mary contributed four numbers, as did also Miss Kathleen McPhail, and Helen McVicar in two numbers. Mr. P. Johnston gave a speech, covering many points, humorous withal. Everybody had plenty to eat and ots left over to feed many more. The proceeds were over $75.

KIMBERLEY

Mr. J. A. Stuart, Mr. Geo. and Mr. R. J. Stuart and Mr. Geo. Knott visited friends here this week.

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. R. Chard on Thusday afternoon. The day was fine and there was a good turn out. After the business was disposed of and arrangements for a social evening for Friday next, an excellent talk was given by Rev. Stotesbury on "Adult Education," bringing out the fact that the public school is only the beginning of our life's education. It should continue always.

Mrs. S. Osborne spent a week in Caledon visiting friends.

Mr. Harold Proctor made his mother, Mrs. G. Proctor, and Miss Marjorie a short visit last week.

Mr. D. L. Weber, Mr. A. Lawrence, Mr. R. Brady and Mr. Earl Dillon attended the Winter Fair at Toronto.

ROCK MILLS

Monday was very stormy and considerable snow fell, but we need more snow yet to make good sleighing.

Mr. Robt. Croft held a very successful auction sale last week.

Mr. Kenneth Betts spent a few days last week in Toronto and attended the Royal Winter Fair.

Mr. A. Baker, who is conducting revival services in Eugenia this week is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Newell.

We notice some of the children around here have their dogs going in the hand sleighs; we presume they are getting ready for the dog races in Flesherton on Santa Claus Day.

Teams are still busy drawing wood from the mill here, there has also been a quantity of lumber shipped this fall from the yards of the Durham Furniture Co., here.

A large number of neighbors and friends spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Betts last Friday.

Sergt. Jack Burke, D.C.M., who died at Walkerton from heart trouble after a friendly scuffle in a restaurant, was a descendant of generations of British soldiers.

CEYLON

Greatly shocked were the citizens of this village and community when it was learned on Saturday that H. Piper had passed away after only two days illness from Uraemia. Dr. Carefoot was called on Friday morning and again in the early hours of Saturday. Gradually growing worse Dr. B. Jamieson of Durham was called, also Miss Vera Marshall, nurse from the Durham hospital, all that human skill could do, but of no avail. He was a son of the late Mr. Jerry Piper and was born in the year 1855, near Ceylon, where he spent nearly all his life on his farm. For a time he worked at the carpenter work with Mr. John Whitten. In the year 1888 he was married to Miss Delilah Hill of near Markdale, and to whom were born two children, a daughter and a son, Mrs. Luther Torrey (Laura) of Lauriston and Roy, who resides on the farm. In 1917 he built a cosy home in this village and when finished where he and his wife ever since resided and where a warm hand of welcome was extended to all who came. He was held in the highest esteem by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. to Flesherton Cemetery. Rev. H. Cowan, pastor here, preached a very comforting message to the bereaved, after which Mr. and Mrs. George Cairns and Miss Maud Hemphill sang "He's the One." L. O. L. 244 of Proton, of which the deceased was a member had charge of the services at the house and grave For 51 years he was a member of the Orange Order. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings of sympathy from the following, pillow from the family, wreath from the four grandchildren, friends of Ceylon and community, pillow from Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cummings of Oshawa, sheaf from the Hill family, Spoffard family, Feversham, Spray from Mr. and Mrs. H. Fisher, Toronto, L. O. L. 244 Proton, The flower bearers were his four grandsons, LaVerne Milford, Sherman Piper, Jack Torrey, George Jayness and Stanley Hunt.

The pall bearers were Messrs Donald McLeod, George Cairns, George Snell, Fred Wright, George Ludlow, Milton Bannon, Earnest Lyons and R. J. Vause, all members of the Orange Order. Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. J. B. Cummings of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. George Torrey, son and daughter of Waudby, Mr. and Mrs. I. Schell of Berkley, Mr. Robt. Torrey and Mr. Stephen Dennit of Lauriston, Mr. Joseph Dowsett of Markdale. The sympathy of the community is extended to his sorrowing widow and family in their sudden bereavement.

Mrs. Raney underwent an operation in the Owen Sound G. and M. Hospital the past week and on the last report was doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Percy Hunt left Thursday to visit friends in Toronto.

Mr. J. McWilliams, who is working near Orangeville, spent the week end at his home here.

Mrs. H. Piper was called on Friday to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Hill, who is ill at the home of her son, at Orange Valley.

Mrs. Cecil Archibald of Proton spent the week end with her parents.

Mr. Harold Spoffard, U. F. O. buyer is busy unloading a car of feed this week.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Meads in the sudden passing of their eldest daughter, Mrs. Gibson, leaving 6 little children motherless.
