TO DRILL AGAIN

It would appear that drilling for oil is again to be resumed on the old Canadian Oil Fields property on the townline west of Shelburne. Quite a number of options were secured on farms in this section during the last summer, by a new company. A house for the workmen is now being put up on the property. A couple of carloads of machinery for the resumption of drilling operations are now being unloaded in Shelburne C.P.R. yards.—Free Press and Economist.

Provincial police are on the lookout for two men going through the country and representing themselves as eye specialists. They are charging from one to a hundred dollars for eye examination and are injecting what they call radium into their eyes. Upon examination this so-called radium is found to be liquor. As soon as the fee has been paid they disappear. They were representing themselves as being connected with a Montreal hospital.

Santa Claus Day on Saturday, Dec. 15th

Santa Claus has again promised to come and see us on the above date and there will be good things for all the kiddies who are in town that day. He expects to arrive around 2 o'clock. In one hundred and fifty of the bags of candy there will be a ticket which will entitle the kiddie to get a Special Prize. The merchants and others are interested enough to supply these candies and prizes.

At a meeting of the merchants of the vilage on Tuesday, T. W. Findlay was elected manager of the day and Messrs W. G. Kennedy, Sheldon Myers and Jas. Stewart were appointed as a committee to work with him. The citizens are solidly behind the Santa Claus movement.

T. W. Findlay is giving prizes for the following, $1 for 1st and 75cts for 2nd—White Cat, Black Cat, with small amount of white allowed, Maltese Cat, Cat with two colors, Cat with more than two colors, Kitten, not full grown, Persian barred. Persian Cat, age considered, Cat with Kittens. Dog Races — First $1.50, 2nd $1, driven by boy or girl 12 years and under, and driven by boy or girl over 12 years of age. Best dressed doll, clothes to be suitable for cold weather, $1.00 and 75cts. Best outfit of a doll in either bed, carriage or cradle, clothes to be considered. Best dressed turkey, $1.50 and $1, Best dressed goose, $1.50 and $1, Best dressed duck, $1 and 75 cts. Best dresseed chicken, $1 and 75 cents, to be judged not for size alone, but for quality of work.

These exhibits will be shown in H. Down & Sons' show room. Cats to be in boxes with wire fronts if possible. If necessary the dogs will be raced one at a time to find out the winner. Let everyone get behind our Big Day and boost it and we will have more kiddies than ever.

In the O. H. A.

The Ontario Hockey Association has accepted the application of the Flesherton club for admission into the intermediate series and the grouping has been drawn up by the executive. Durham, Markdale and Flesherton comprise Group 16, and it is likely that home-and-home games will be played between these teams. Flesherton rink is not O. H. A. size, but the other teams did not protest on that account. A good team is being rounded up and as soon as the ice is available in the rink the boys will don the steel blades for the first practise. Some fast games are anticipated in this group and more interest in hockey will be manifested, no doubt.

Thanks to The Hunters

The thanks of the editor is extended to Messrs Geo. Mitchell and S. Sutton of town for liberal piece of venison, and also to Mr. Ernie Morgan of Eugenia and Mr. H. Down of town for generous portions. The Editor has been enjoying good health this fall after his illness during the past four years, but was unable to take the trip to Parry Sound with the hunting party. These testimonials of good-will are therefore doubly welcome.

BORN

TALBOT — In Artemesia, on Sunday, December 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Talbot, a daughter.

J. S. Culp, traffic officer on the Toronto-Owen Sound road has been transferred to the Guelph-Hamilton route. Mr. Culp will, no doubt, make many motorists gulp at times on that road.

Because his permit showed that he had purchased 72 bottles of beer and three bottle of whiskey on one day, and three days later, when the Provincial Police called at his residence in Palgrave, there were only 7 bottles of beer and a half bottle of whiskey, Adolphus Raymond was sent down for two months by Magistrate Crawford, of Brampton. He appealed the case and was allowed out on $500 bail.
